HOTEL PANIC IS CAUSED BY FIRE ALARM

Smoke From Small Blaze in Rear of Restaurant Sends 35 Men and Women, Scantily Dressed, in Wild Rush

Police Will Investigate Circumstances of Two Fires in One Week in East Oakland Old-Time Hostelry

Thirty-five guests at the Union Hotel, Thirteenth avenue and East Twelfth street, were forced to the street in scanty attire late last night when fire broke out in the rear of a restaurant under the hotel, owned by John Wick. When the flames were discovered by Mrs. Kate Ruckert, proprietor of the hotel, the rear of the restaurant was aflame while the two floors of the hotel were clouded with a dense smoke. The alarm was given and the thirty-five guests, including both men and women, fled to the street. The only casualty occurred when George Glazier, an invalid guest, stumbled down a short flight of stairs while groping his way out. He was partially stunned, but walked out without assistance after being revived.

GUESTS GUIDED TO STREET BY DIRECTION OF FIREMEN.

The Union Hotel is a three-story frame structure and great alarm was evidenced by the guests when the alarm was given. Despite the dense smoke the entire number were hurried to the street by firemen, under direction of Battalion Chief Harry McGrath, without mishap. The building is owned by John Chambers, president of the Civil Service Commission.

Wick is the father of Theodore Wick, the 13-year-old boy who was killed by a gun trap at the Eureka Lumber Mills on the night of March 22, 1920. The trap was set for burglars who had been systematically robbing the place. Young Wick was instantly killed, while his companion, William Ahearns, escaped injury.

ORIGIN OF FIRE TO BE INVESTIGATED.

The fire last night was the second in five days. At 3 o'clock last Monday morning fire broke out in the same spot behind the restaurant, in a pile of rubbish. An investigation will be made by the fire department, which is now investigating the cause of the fire. The restaurant was insured. Damage was estimated at $250.

The Union Hotel is a familiar landmark in the city, and a busy place when the heart of the city was lately in its neighborhood. It was lately remodelled. It was not damaged by the fire.

Mrs. Bergdoll Says She Buried $105,000 in Gold

Mother of Millionaire Army Slacker Laughs As She Talks to Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, mother of Grover C. Bergdoll, draft dodger, told a House investigation committee today that she buried the $105,000 in gold obtained from the treasury in the fall of 1917. She refused to give any information regarding the burial place, but indicated it was not as far away from Philadelphia as Hagerstown.

Mrs. Bergdoll revealed that the "not of gold" she was asked to reveal was in the hands of a man who had been in the army. She said she had buried it in a place where it was safe. She said she had buried it in a place where it was safe. She said she had buried it in a place where it was safe.

When counsel for the committee referred to Bergdoll as having refused to serve in the army, the mother flared up and quickly answered: "Grover didn't refuse, he wanted to serve."

A week ago Mrs. Bergdoll testified she saw Grover, who is in Germany, $10,000.

"That is all I've ever given him since his arrest," she added.

NEW YORK, May 13.—James A. Stillman, multimillionaire, ex-president of the National City Bank, asked Referee Glendon today for an indefinite postponement of the hearing in his divorce suit which had been scheduled for May 13. Word of his request gave rise to rumors that Stillman "dropped" the divorce action, but this was promptly and emphatically denied by him through his attorneys here. The indefinite postponement is expected to be granted. It was requested by the former banker on the plea that he would not be ready on the appointed date for the presentation of his case.

State's Flowers Vie With Girlhood in Pretty Campus Exercises.

California flowers vied with girlhood on the Mills College campus this morning when the young women who will receive their sheepskins at commencement on Monday, observed the traditional classical rites and took formal leave of their alma mater. Across the bridge under the grove of eucalyptus, the vested choir in robes of white, led the student body—the freshmen, the sophomores, the juniors, bearing garlands and wreaths of green. Last came the senior women, walking in couples under the triumphal floral arches, to talk the in place emblem of the front porch of the Mills Hall, the oldest college building.

Faculty members led by President Aurilia Henry, accompanied by friends of the graduates and students, joined the student body in the ceremony.

The 1921 class dedicated to Mills College the song composed by two of its members, Miss Nancy Ellen White who wrote the words, and Miss Gladys Washburn, the music. The manuscript was rendered by the vested choir. Miss White read the class poem, of which she was the writer.

"MAKE A PLACE," AUNT PANE ADVISES.

"Aunt Jane Klunk," adopted by the 21st class, and Dr. Cardinal Goodwin spoke for the alumnae and the faculty.

"Make a place for yourself," was Miss Klunk's admonition. "Progression does not always mean change, sometimes it is holding to the old truths and the old places, but thinking them and doing them in a newer and better way. The question in education today is 'what we shall not teach.'"

The importance of cultivating human friendships, of mingling with people and not confining intimacy to two or three chosen spirits, was stressed by Dr. Goodwin. She declared that "the friend who from the shirtwaist who cannot, is your superior," he told the graduates.

The butcher and the baker filling jobs that you cannot are superiors in their own way. You need them as much as they need you.

"The faculty wish to you to be for whatever things are true; whatever things are honest; whatever things are lovely; whatever things are of good report." Dr. Goodwin concluded.

DR. REINHARDT SPEAKS ON CLASS SYMBOL.

"You are our yesterday, today and tomorrow," Dr. Reinhardt told the graduating body. "You are the cause of our college for being, the symbol of our achievement and the inspiration for what we are and do."

The senior's farewell was expressed by that "We are glad it is our commencement because it finishes four of the happiest years that can come to us." She pledged that the graduates would go out and do, carrying with them the Mills spirit of loyalty, faith and service.

Miss Virginia Grabs, senior class president, presided.

From Mills Hall, led by the graduates, they marched to the gymnasium for the presentation of the class.

RICCARDI IS FREED FROM SAN QUENTIN

Five-Year Sentence of Lawyer Charged With Embezzlement, Is Commuted by the Order of Gov. Stephens

Accused Was Active Agent in Exposure of Corrupt Conditions Across Bay, Given As One of Reasons for Act

SACRAMENTO, May 13.—The five-year sentence of C. Vincent Riccardi, San Francisco attorney, sent to San Quentin penitentiary last February following his conviction on a charge of embezzling money from a client, today was commuted by Governor William D. Stephens, the sentence to expire at once.

In his order commuting the sentence, Governor Stephens stated that one of the principal reasons for the release of Riccardi was that the former attorney became an active agent in the exposure of corrupt conditions in San Francisco.

It also was stated that appeals have been made on behalf of Riccardi by the foreman and committee of the San Francisco grand jury, San Francisco Fire Association and the San Francisco police department.

The order says in part: "The convincing argument is made that without the active aid of Riccardi nothing could have been accomplished in the rectification of conditions."

Riccardi was sentenced to San Quentin prison for felony and embezzlement by Superior Judge Michael Roche in San Francisco on February 23 last.

The passing of judgment came only after Riccardi had first begged, then harassed and finally taunted the court by refusing to stand for his arrest. Disbarment proceedings in the Supreme court.

The proceedings started in 1918 when one of the co-defendants, who pleaded they had been defrauded. It was finally charged that Riccardi bribed a judge, and when Riccardi did not appear in court on May 23, 1919, a bench warrant was issued for his arrest. Disbarment proceedings were instigated and the attorney was prohibited from practicing law.

He later surrendered on an embezzlement charge. This case was a forerunner of the agitation which resulted in the recall of Police Judge Sullivan and Oppenheim for bond practices and other irregularities.

The explosion, which was caused by a dynamite bomb, shook several occupants of the house out of bed.

The bomb had been placed between the screen door of the front entrance and the back door.

Force of the blast shattered the flooring of the top floor of the building, and the ceiling of the upper floor were rent and plaster was knocked off the walls by the explosion.

This is the second time the house has been attacked. The first was in five weeks. On the previous occasion, four sticks of dynamite were found at the door, but the fuse had gone out.

Colbourn and Carter Speak At Luncheon

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

The first public appearance of Frank Colbourn and Albert E. Carter since the municipal election of May 10, when they were chosen by the voters of Oakland as Commissioners Nos. 1 and 2 respectively, was today when they spoke at a luncheon of the Good Government League at the Hotel Oakland.

Both Colbourn and Carter were emphatic in their statements that they "were under obligations to no one" and that when the time came they would stand for re-election on the basis of their own merits.

The first to speak was Joe King, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. He said: "To lay the foundation of a good city it is vitally necessary that we as individuals co-operate with the men we have elected in order that they may put forth their best efforts. No one organization can bring this about. The men we have selected can with the aid of every individual who stands for good government."

Colbourn and Carter both declared that they were going into office to do their best, and called upon the citizens of Oakland to co-operate with them in every way.

Others who made brief talks at the luncheon were Larry Moore, V. O. Lawrence, Max Horvath, Fred Melman, Leroy Goodrich, Cal Ewing and Albert Baum.

275 War Craft Reported Junked by Great Britain

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, May 13.—Some 200 destroyers, 25 battleships and 50 light cruisers have disappeared from the British navy list during recent months. The British admiralty has issued an announcement saying the vessels were sold to British firms for breaking up.

This statement was the result of reports circulated in America that Great Britain was selling war craft to South American governments for eventual transfer to Japanese hands. "The only ships disposed of to foreign governments since the armistice," the admiralty informed the Associated Press, "are the battleship Canada and two other vessels, which were sold to the Chilean government, for which they were originally built, one sloop to Denmark, two sloops to Portugal and one sloop to Belgium."

Disregard for Treaty Shown by Poland May Plunge Nations Into Another War, Lloyd George Tells House

Premier Urges Allies to Act or Permit Germany to Protect Herself From Attack in Upper Silesia Fight

BY UNITED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, May 13.—The peace of Europe is threatened by the Polish insurrection in Upper Silesia, Premier Lloyd George told Commons today.

"I am frightened," he declared, "at what may happen if confidence is not restored."

"The Polish invasion is a complete defiance of the treaty of Versailles," the premier declared. "Unless stern justice is meted out immediately, it will be fatal to the peace of Europe."

Lloyd George said there was no reason why the allies should object to Germany's using her forces to restore order in her own province. "That would be simply fair play," he said.

TRATY HELD CHARTER OF POLISH FREEDOM.

Lloyd George said the treaty of Versailles was the charter of Polish freedom and that she was the last country in the world who had the right to complain about the treaty. Poland did not win her liberty, he asserted, but her liberty was due to Italy, Great Britain and France.

The premier said there was no reason why the allies should object to Germany's using her forces to restore order in her own province. "That would be simply fair play," he said.

The Polish government has said that the Poles in Silesia would die rather than surrender. If they had thought that earlier, they would have fought for Poland freedom was being fought, there would have been fewer British, French and Italian lives lost. But they only think of it when it is too late, he declared.

ALLEGED POISONER OF SIX GUARDED AGAINST SUICIDE

Woman Accused of Killing Four Husbands Refuses to Be Interviewed.

BY UNITED PRESS.
LEARN WIFE TO TRIBUNE.
HONOLULU, May 13.—Precautions to prevent the suicide of Mrs.
Lydia Southard, Twin Falls, Idaho, held here as an alleged feminine
"bluebird" were taken today by the Honolulu police.

They said they had information which caused them to fear Mrs.
Southard might take her own life.
At the request of Mrs. Southard's
fifth husband, Chief Petty Officer
Paul Vincent Southard of the U. S. S.
Monterey, authorities here persisted in their refusal to permit Mrs.
Southard to be interviewed.

"She refuses to talk to anyone, anyway," they said.

Southard was found by the United Press correspondent aboard his ship.

"The less you say about this,
the better for you," he flashed angrily when questioned about his wife's arrest. He refused to say anything further.

A report was circulated here that Mrs. Southard had attempted to have him take out an insurance policy recently for $10,000.

The reputation of the Southards
in Honolulu was the best.

"I have known Mrs. Southard
here as a good, sweet woman," Mrs.
William Stetzer, an acquaintance of the Southard family, declared today.

Mrs. Southard had the certificate of her marriage to Southard with her when she was arrested and it was held, along with a few other effects, by the police.

The woman will be held here until deputies arrive from Idaho or Los Angeles with the proper extradition papers, police said.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—
Deputy Sheriff V. H. Ormsby of Twin Falls, Idaho, who with the assistance of Los Angeles officers caused the arrest of Mrs. Lydia Southard in Honolulu on a charge of murder, arrived here from the south today and immediately started arrangements for her removal to Honolulu in order to bring Mrs.
Southard back to Twin Falls to face trial there.

Woman Laughs While Thugs Beat Autoist

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—While a woman sat looking on and laughed, two thugs administered a severe beating to Robert Goldie, jitney driver, of 1120 Alameda street, early today, and escaped with $5, all the money he had in his pocket. Posing as passengers, the three boarded the machine at Fillmore and Ellis streets.

Goldie's run is to the ferry, but the woman insisted that he drive them to Seventh avenue and Geary street.

On arriving there she was the first to alight. Just as the two men were about to step out of the car, one of them drew a pistol and forced Goldie to hold up his hands. Then the second man struck him from behind, presumably with a blackjack. The last he remembers was the laughter of the woman. A passing automob-ilist conveyed him to the French hospital, where he regained consciousness. He was later removed to the Central Emergency hospital, where a deep wound in his head was dressed.

GALVESTON, Tex., May 12.—An-

Chicago Is Oasis of Nation; Beakers of Real Stuff Sold

CHICAGO, May 13.—Sad eyes of the nation today were focused upon Chicago—the oasis in the great Volstead desert.

Oliver T. Remmers, attorney for the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Company, St. Louis, put this city in the headlines following his testimony before the house judiciary committee, in which he charged real beer was being openly sold in Chicago.

"You said a stein-tull, Oliver," was the way his exposé was received here by patrons of the back-sidled "dry" cafes. "Here's how!"

Remmers' demand for a congressional investigation did not worry saloonkeepers here who haven't handled near beer for two months. "Drink hearty, boys, they're jealous of us," was the frequent remark from behind the mahogany.

Large frothing steins from four to six per cent beer were still being sold today at from 25 to 30 cents a "copy." The "edition" was large. No proof of "good fellowship" was demanded in most cafes.

During the last few weeks, "the good old days" have come another step nearer—the great neighborhood habit of intemperately "shooting the can" to the corner saloon has returned. The only difference is that a good sized "can" costs about seventy cents instead of ten.

During Remmers' testimony, which was presented in the hearings on whether beer should be sold as medicine, he read a statement from August Busch, head of the Anheuser-Busch Company, which said the policy of the company is "beer for all or beer for none."

The policy of Chicago is "beer for all."

WRITER WILL SPEAK

Naturo Barley, magazine writer, will be the principal speaker tomorrow afternoon at the regular meeting of the fiction section of the California Writers' club, which will be held at the Y. W. C. A. at 2:30 o'clock. Tarrey Connor will also appear.

R. R. COMMISSION RULING FORESEES 40-MILE ZONES

Decision Holds the Blanket Switching Rate for District Indefensible.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Picturing in future years industrial zones extending without break for thirty to forty miles from the centers of Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles, the Railroad Commission in a decision entered today holds indefensible the establishment of a blanket switching rate for such territory and authorizes the Southern Pacific to readjust its charges.

The company is instructed to base the new rates on zones which the commission establishes, changing materially the distances and charges proposed by the company in tariffs submitted in response to a previous order.

Today's opinion follows the presentation of what is known as the South San Francisco switching case, brought by the Chamber of Commerce of that municipality charging that Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles had more favorable switching conditions. Extension of the San Francisco yard limit to South San Francisco and a blanket rate were asked.

ONE RATE OPPOSED.

In his opinion Commissioner H. D. Loveland says:

"The South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce directed much of its testimony exhibits and briefs to the contention that there should be but one uniform rate between all points within the San Francisco switching limit and this without any regard to the length of the haul or the character of the territory through which the traffic moved. With this contention I cannot agree for there must be a limit to the distance a rate of fixed volume will carry, some points where the intrayard switching rate must break, otherwise it would be automatically extended with the growth of our cities. This is illustrated in Oakland, where the original intrayard switching limit was 4.3 miles, under a 25 cent rate, extended to 7 miles and then to 10.5 miles. There are now many factories south of Elmhurst and it would be no violent stretch of the imagination to picture in the days to come industrial zones extending without break for thirty or forty miles from the centers of San Francisco, Oakland and Los Angeles; a blanket rate for such a zone manifestly would not be considered and certainly could not be defended."

There are now three switching zones in San Francisco with rates of 37 1/2 cents, 50 cents and 80 cents per ton, respectively, according to the distance from the city. The last named, including the South San Francisco territory. The new order establishes six zones, three at 37 1/2 cents, two at 50 cents and one at 70 cents.

The order of the commission will have the effect of reducing certain charges in South San Francisco. At Oakland there is no switching district with a charge of 37 1/2 cents per ton. The Southern Pacific proposed establishing three zones with a rate of 37 1/2 cents and one zone between Oakland wharf and Elmhurst, 39 to 10 miles, at 70 cents per ton. The order of the commission permits the establishment of the 37 1/2-cent zones between Oakland and Fiftieth avenue and between Elmhurst and Fallon streets. In lieu of the 70 per cent zone proposed, by the carrier between Oakland zone and Elmhurst, the commission has ordered a rate of 50 cents.

The effect of today's decision will be the removal of all discrimination in shipping charges now existing in the three largest industrial centers in California, their establishment on an equal basis from the yard trans-

GARCIA PAYS HIS DEBT TO PAINT STEPS OF PRISON

The front steps at San Quentin prison were today bathed in a new coat of scarlet paint, and a debt which Arthur Garcia, member of the Progressive Business Men, owed J. A. Johnston, warden of the prison, was marked "paid."

A score of the members of the Progressive Business Men left this morning in automobiles to escort Garcia to the prison. The party arrived at 11 o'clock and Garcia at once performed the task of painting Warden Johnston's steps, while hundreds of inmates of the prison and invited guests looked on.

The debt was incurred two weeks ago at a luncheon of the Progressive Business Men when Warden Johnston who was a guest, was given the task of pointing out a member of the Business Men, naming him and giving his occupation. The man so named was to render Johnston a service in his particular line of endeavor. Garcia was the victim. Being a painter, he was required to paint the front steps of the main identifying him.

Girl Hikers Arrange to Sup by Moonlight

Tonight they are going out Joaquin Miller road for a moonlight hike and supper, returning by the Moraga road.

Fraud Conviction Halts Lawyer's Case

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—W. J. Danford, former Los Angeles attorney, who was disbarred by the state supreme court following his conviction on a charge of defrauding a client, was halted in the midst of an argument in the United States circuit court today and told that his disbarment prevented him from arguing in a federal court. Danford argued for several minutes before he was halted.

OGDEN ESTATE IS WORTH $58,000

A report of the final settlement of the estate of the late Superior Judge Frank B. Ogden was filed with the county clerk today by Frank M. Ogden, son of the late judge, who is executor of the estate.

After the payment of all claims against the estate, $58,077 remains, according to the report. The property was divided equally among Mrs. Louise Irene Ogden, widow, and two sons and daughters.

Machinist's Punch Snaps Youth's Arm

William Kimbrough, a machinist, has such a punch that when he hit Propel Brandt, aged 16, while they were boxing in front of a waterfront machine shop, he broke Brandt's arm in two places and sent the damaged youth to the emergency hospital.

According to Frank Davidson, steward at the emergency, the youthful Dempsey was boxing with Brandt at noon when he produced the wallop that broke Brandt's arm. Brandt lives at 604 Broadway, and is a machinist's helper.

These apprehended, all of whom were hatched with burglary are Albert George, 2040 Taylor street; Louis Cambio, 674 Vallejo street, and Albert Miller, 1412 Seventh avenue. The three were captured by Detectives Dymon, Mackey and Gable, following the burglary of the fur store of Sam Hastings, 430 Sutter.

BEER MEDICINE SOMETHING NEW, ASSERT DOCTORS

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Dr. Howard A. Kelly, a surgeon of Johns Hopkins Hospital, and Dr. James M. H. Rowland, professor at the University of Maryland, testified today before the House judiciary committee that they never had prescribed beer and had never seen it used as a medicine.

Representative Chandler, Republican, of New York, asked whether beer was not responsible for the "magnificent stature and long life of the German people, who drink beer all their lives."

"I do not know anything concerning the longevity of the race," Dr. Rowland said. "I am an opstetrician and I work at the front end of life. I do know that beer of any kind containing alcohol is bad for babies."

Paroled Convict Is Found Shot to Death

ST. LOUIS, May 13.—Allen B. Morris, paroled convict under federal indictment for alleged complicity in the theft of $34,000 in Liberty bonds from a Jefferson City mail carrier last March 3 and sought by police as slayer of Mike McNamara, notorious underworld character, was today found shot to death on the Mississippi river levee two miles west of Madison, Ill.

Louis Weinman Estate Bequeathed to Widow

BUILDING TIE-UP LOOMS, DUE TO WAGE CUT PLAN

Labor Council Will Refuse to Accept Decision of S. F. Board.

There was nothing in the course of the procedure followed by both parties in the presentation of their case, to indicate that the issues were intended to be limited as is now suggested. Nor did the Building Trades Council in its replies to statements and arguments filed by the contractors, make the point that the board has no right to consider the requests for decreases made in these statements and arguments.

"Inasmuch as the Building Trades Council has refused to abide by the decision rendered, allowing the workmen to walk out and tie up a portion of the building industry, the Builders' Exchange of Alameda county on May 12, 1921, passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Central Council of the Builders' Exchange of Alameda county recommend that a reduction in wages of all crafts, in addition to the several crafts affected by the decision of the arbitration board, be reduced seven and one-half per cent (7 1/2%), and that said reduction take effect at 8 o'clock a. m. Monday, May 16, 1921. Builders' Exchange of Alameda County, by E. C. Graff, first vice-president."

At the Building Trades' Council today there was no statement ready, except the general one that the reduction would be considered and that any application of a lower scale would mean a tie-up of all of the crafts engaged in the building business. Sam Donohue, head of the organization, is to issue a statement tomorrow.

Brother Agnon is the first on the Pacific Coast to round out fifty years of service as a member of the faculty of St. Mary's College. He is in vigorous health and is teaching today the grandsons of many of his former pupils.

Former pupils of Brother Agnon, who is recognized as one of the foremost educators in America, are coming from all parts of the United States to pay their respects.

The program will include a mass in the morning, a luncheon at noon, an athletic tournament in the afternoon, in which three generations of pupils and former pupils of Brother Agnon will participate, and a banquet in the evening, at which United States Attorney Frank M. Silva, graduate of St. Mary's College, will preside as toastmaster. Brother Gregory, president of the institution, has sent out hundreds of letters urging all former pupils of Brother Agnon to be present. Letters of acceptance have come from more than a dozen states.

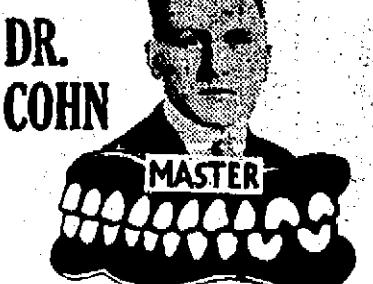

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Charles F. Hanlon, William J. Fitzgerald, James L. Hagerty, Peter J. McCormick and Brother Gregory. Brief addresses will be made by the following former pupils of Brother Agnon: Judges Maurice T. Dooling, Thomas J. Lennon, Frank J. Murasky, Louis F. Ward and Bernard J. Flood of San Francisco; B. I. Butler, San Rafael; James W. Bartlett, Weaverville; and F. P. Langan, Reno.

RUMORS THICK AT CITY HALL AS JOB QUEST GROWS HOT

Many Changes in Officers Are Certain When the New Regime Goes In.

Amid the flocks of rumor now clacking about the city hall certain facts are beginning to evolve themselves as the new administration candidates are getting their second wind and a chance to survey the field.

Among the items fairly well established and in some cases admitted are the following:

Commissioner Baccus will be head of the Street Department after July 1.

City Engineer George Mattis will be succeeded.

The position of efficiency expert, now held by Norval Cook, will be abolished.

City Attorney Hagan will be ousted.

CASE OF FITZMAURICE.

The rest of it has caused infinite speculation at the city hall. Some officials who belonged to the old regime and were heartily for the case of William Fitzmaurice, city treasurer. The treasurer is appointed by the council and holds office at its pleasure. Fitzmaurice was formerly for Hempstead and Anderson, the candidates who were fought by Baccus, who is Commissioner of Revenue and Finance and immediately over Fitzmaurice. Fitzmaurice is generally popular, a most competent official and loyal always to his friends.

"We all like Billy," says Baccus. "It's a problem."

The name of Jesse J. Dunn has been bandied about as a likely successor to City Attorney Hagan. So is the name of Assistant City Attorney Leon Gray.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE ON.

By the rules of politics, City Clerk Cummings will lose his official head July 1, but intimations are that he will stay. Though Cummings belonged to the old regime and worked for the defeated candidates, he had many friends, it is said, in the winning camp.

Negotiations for all the positions have been proceeding day and night in and about the city hall. The new administration is being besieged, and a ukase has gone out that few jobs will be given to applicants, but rather to those modest folk who wait for the lightning to strike.

"I never knew that Colbourn and Carter had so many friends," said Chief of Police Fenton Thompson yesterday, when watching citizens flocking to the victorious side after fighting desperately for the losing faction.

Thompson, appointed by Morse recently, admits he does not know whether he will go or not.

"My record bears inspection," he said. "I'm willing to go if necessary but it is hard to forecast."

WHITEHEAD UNCERTAIN.

Another Chief who is "slated" for the eve, according to some rumors, is Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead. On the other hand, Whitehead was often "budd" with the old Morse faction and rumors of his dismissal were usually rife as the flowers in May. Whitehead has only a few months left until he is entitled to be retired with the rank of Chief, and with its pension. If he is demoted, he must retire with lesser rank. His work has been indorsed by many experts and commercial organizations and it is believed that he may remain as chief, although this situation is clouded in the general uncertainty.

Many successors have been "mentioned" for Building Inspector Joseph Lloyd, who was an ardent partisan of Morse. On the other hand, none have been suggested for Dr. C. C. Wing, milk inspector, who was not an ardent partisan of Morse. The position of Dr. Kirby Smith, health officer, is another problem. He was a Morse appointee.

Hall," says an experienced observer who will not allow his name to be mentioned, "has the sign of the double cross been as persistent as during the past campaign. Men who were appointed by Morse were working secretly for the other side. Men who belonged to the anti-Morse camp worked for Morse or for Hempstead and Anderson. Men who were with M. J. Kelly vocally were for Colbourn, Carter and Mayor Davis secretly, and vice-versa. Many officials stood in one camp but had strings in the other one. The City Hall has seen expert straddling and wire-pulling. There has never been anything like it."

FINDS HOME DESTROYED.

LIVE OAK, Cal., May 13.—George Kishin, Japanese, was away from home for a few days this week and upon his return found his house in ashes. There were $200 in gold and $500 in currency in the house. His loss is estimated at $2000. He farms the George Mosher ranch on Cherokee Lane, near the Eight Mile road. Mosher will rebuild for the Japanese.

MEXICAN LEADER REFUSES TO SIGN CONDITIONAL PACT

Protocol to Recognition Act Will Be Rejected, Says President Obregon.

MEXICO CITY, May 13.—Mexico cannot and will not sign a formal protocol as a condition to recognition by the United States, President Obregon told newspapermen last night in referring to President Harding's policy as outlined in despatches received here on Tuesday. He said he had received letters recently from friends in Washington, who assured him they see in President Harding, Secretary of State Hughes and Assistant Secretary Fletcher three men with extremely cordial feelings towards Mexico, who apparently are inclined to re-establish relations between the two countries.

Close friends of President Obregon assert he is willing to give the United States any information it desires relative to conditions in Mexico. Assurances have been given us to safeguards and guarantees for foreign investments and various public declarations by President Obregon indicate he believes such assurances are ample and sufficient to prove the nation's stability and its right to recognition.

Referring to Great Britain's evident intention to withhold recognition until safeguards are given, the foreign office stated last night that the Mexican government wishes at

'WARE LADDERS!' FRIDAY, 13TH, IS WITH US AGAIN

Today is the most horrible one in all the year.

Not because it is Friday, for we struggle through one of those days each week, but because—

It is Friday, the thirteenth, and, moreover—

It is Friday, the thirteenth, in the year 1921, and if any of the superstitious are brave or curious enough to experiment with the dangerous possibilities in the situation let them add the integers of "1921."

There has not been such a combination since Friday, the thirteenth, in 1912, and the records of that day show that it rained, hailed, snowed and blew in various places, that persons who walked under a ladder or tied their shoes on the car tracks took a chance.

For all the fact that tonight the neighbor's gate will grow like sneaky music on the stage and the wind will play wild tunes on gables and nerves, Friday, the thirteenth, in Oakland means nothing, except the marriage license bureau does a very slack business.

Publisher Is Named As Hoover Assistant

TWO WOMEN, ONE MAN ASK DIVORCE

Mrs. Chirlina Del Sarto in a divorce affidavit just filed against Maurizio Del Sarto says that last Wednesday her husband went on a rampage, threw a glass and other articles at her and then said: "Now is the time to end it all. I'm going to finish you up." At these words she fled to the bedroom and barricaded the door, she alleges.

The plaintiff asks $75 a month alimony and the custody of the two children. They were married July 11, 1912, and separated May 11, 1921.

Cora L. Moreau in her divorce complaint deposes that Chauncey C. Moreau cursed her daughters by a former marriage, twisted her arm until she screamed and spent his time and money gambling. She says Moreau makes $10 a day and asks that she be awarded $100 a month for the support of herself and 8-year-old Sanford. She also asks the community property, which consists of $2000 in the bank, property in Portland and Liberty bonds. They were married August 10, 1910, and separated May 10, 1921.

One month after Wilfred La Plant and Dorothy La Plant started housekeeping, they separated. Wilfred says Dorothy treated him in a cruel and inhuman manner. They were married April 18, 1921.

NEW HOTEL TO OPEN

Invitations are being issued by R. C. Durant, Thomas O'Brien and Charles A. Cooke to the formal opening dinner at the Hotel Durant at Lebo, California, on Thursday, May 13, at 7:30 p. m. The hosts describe the affair as "strictly stag."

PICNIC RESORTS TO BE INVADED

Eastbay picnic resorts will be in big demand Saturday and Sunday when four separate organizations will gather to hold their annual picnics and outings. Two hundred and fifty employees of the Internal Revenue Office of San Francisco and their friends will invade Redwood Canyon tomorrow, where Madrone Park has been secured for the outing. Games, music and dancing will be features of the outing.

On Sunday there will be two picnics in the canyon. The French Benevolent Society will hold its outing at Pinhurst, a moonlight picnic, and the members of the San Francisco Park the Monte Verde Grove of Druids will gather with upward of 300 members.

All picnickers will leave San Francisco on the 2:40 o'clock Key Route ferry and will be joined by the Eastbay members at the Fortieth street and Shafter avenue depot of the San Francisco and Sacramento railroad at 10:10 a. m. The return will be made by trains, leaving the canyon at 4:30 and 6:30 p. m.

Another Eastbay picnic to be held Sunday will be that of the employees of the General Electric Co. of San Francisco, who have secured Diablo Park in Contra Costa county for their outing. Dog Attacks Man, Gashes His Throat

H. L. O'Hare, a house mover, was attacked this morning by a dog as he was going in to the yard of J. H. Luthage, 1019 Fortieth street. The dog made a lunge at O'Hare and grabbed him by the throat, throwing him to the ground. O'Hare grappled with the dog on the ground for several minutes. His calls for help brought Luthage from the house. He hit the dog with an iron bar, and the dog was taken to the emergency hospital where he was treated for several bites in the neck and face. The dog is at the pound.

CANDIDATES FOR MINISTRY FEWER; SALARY REASON

PORTLAND, Ore., May 13.—There is a startling shortage of suitable material for the ministry among the young men of the nation, a shortage which threatens the welfare of the church.

This was the assertion here today of Bishop Theodore S. Henderson of Detroit, before the semi-annual conference of the national board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church.

"Nearly all churches are experiencing difficulty in keeping up the ministry," Bishop Henderson said. "Lack of attractive or even adequate salaries for young men is the primary reason for the shortage."

Courses of study for Methodist ministers were discussed at this morning's session. Twenty-two bishops from all parts of the United States are attending.

Tonight, the thirty-second anniversary of the founding of the Epworth League, will be celebrated, and Bishop A. W. Leonard of San Francisco, will speak.

FIFTY ARE SLAIN IN MEXICAN RIOT

MEXICO CITY, May 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—Fifty persons were killed and a score wounded last night in Morelia, capital of the State of Michoacan, says reports to the Excelsior this morning when police, aided by unsolicited help from radicals, charged a large group of Catholics.

The latter were demonstrating against alleged desecration of their churches last Sunday by radicals. The Catholic population of Morelia broke many images and eventually placed their red flag on the cathedral tower.

Vicente Coyt, inspector of police, led a large unit of fully armed gendarmes against the demonstrators, few of whom carried arms. The latter refused the demand of Coyt that they disperse, and when a volley was fired over their heads, the

'OAKLAND II' BORN AT MOOSE FETE

"Oakland II" is being suggested as the name for the second monkey to be born in Oakland with the Moose festival at Forty-fifth and San Pablo. The monkey was born yesterday morning. The "II" is to be added to the name because of the fact that last year when the same festival company played here a baby monkey was born to one of the simian performers and was named "Oakland."

"Oakland" has since carried the name of the city to all parts of the country and it looks now as though the place "where rail and water meet" will have two monkey press agents at work spreading its fame.

Large crowds are expected at the carnival staged by the Wortham shows for the Moose lodge tomorrow and Sunday nights when all the candidates in the second degree of Moosehood will make the carnival grounds their stamping place.

SHIP CARRYING FOOD FOR NEAR EAST WILL SAIL

Esther Dollar Will Leave for Supply Bases On June 6.

Carrying a cargo of foodstuffs, comprised principally of beans, prunes and flour, the Near East Relief ship, the Esther Dollar, will sail from San Francisco June 6 for Trieste and Constantinople, the bases of supplies for the Near East Relief force operating in Southern Europe and Asia Minor. A consignment of California beans, to the value of $5000, the gift of Robert Dollar, and a ton of dried prunes, the donation of the American Legion Post of San Jose, are included. The cargo, however, will be made up of flour, donated by the citizens of the East, and purchased by the Relief society with funds from the donation boxes in all of the larger stores and business houses.

With the co-operation of the Boy Scouts, the society will begin a thorough canvass of the city beginning Monday, for old and discarded clothing. Assisting in the drive will be the laundry drivers of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond and other east bay cities. The labor councils of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond and Vallejo are also taking in active part in the old clothes campaign.

STEFANSSON TO MAKE TRIP TO ARCTIC AGAIN

PASADENA, May 13.—Another expedition into the Arctic regions in two or three years is planned by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the explorer, he announced here at the residence of Ernest de Koven Lefingwell, also an explorer, where he is a guest.

Despite the discovery of the North Pole, Stefansson said, there remains much room for exploration in the Arctic.

"The center of the ice-bound regions of the North never has been reached by man," he said. "The North Pole is 450 miles from the edge of the ice area, while the center is 800 miles from the edge. We are centering out interest on getting to the center and finding out what is there. I have no theories. It may be land or ice."

BUDGET METHODS ARE CRITICIZED

TOKYO, May 13.—Discussing the movement of Japanese business men to curtail military expenditures, the Yorodzu, a Tokyo daily, with a large popular circulation, emphasizes how little the civil officials have to do with naval and army appropriations in this country.

The newspaper records the contention of the business elements that about 48.8 per cent of the budget is devoted to armaments, but points out that this is not unpropor-tionate, because in 1897, subsequent to the Japan-China war, the percentage was 49.4 per cent. However, the amount in 1921-1922 shows a seven-fold increase compared with 1897.

The journal continues: "Apart from the question of the excessive nature or otherwise of the military expenditure, however, it must be pointed out that owing to the fact that the administration of the army and navy is in the hands of military and naval men respectively, no civil official—much less outsiders—are allowed to know particulars of the military expenditures. Sometimes a satisfactory explanation is denied even in the Diet."

It is for this reason that naval and military men are allowed freedom in the expenditures of public funds, unfettered by outside interference.

"It will be a mistake if this sort of thing is allowed to go on. While not wishing to overburden the country with more investigation committees, it is surely necessary in this instance that a committee be appointed so that careful investigation

PERSIAN KITTEN HAS TWO HEADS, BUT ONE THROAT

PORTLAND, Ore., May 13.—A freak Persian kitten with two heads, four eyes, two noses and two mouths was born at the home of Larry Furman, cat fancier.

The kitten has only one throat, one on each head. Only one throat leads from the two mouths, branching off in the shape of a Y. In other respects the kitten is normal, having a well shaped body.

Letter From Felon's Cell Shows Loyalty

The loyalty of a convict for a "pal" was demonstrated in the court of Superior Judge G. E. Samuels when a letter alleged to have been written to Clyde Shobe, to H. A. Hancock, alleged burglar, was produced.

Hancock is on trial on a charge of having committed burglary in a San Pablo avenue hotel. Shobe is in San Quentin serving a term for assisting in the same crime. When Shobe was tried, Hancock took the stand and declared he was entirely responsible, as Shobe had nothing to do with the affair. But witnesses identified both men, and Shobe was convicted.

Shobe's alleged letter said: "When you go up for parole, I will take the blame, if they give me a chance and tell them I framed it on you, so you won't have to do a job, too. Don't shed no tears for me, old man."

Charges of Misuse of Funds Settled

SACRAMENTO, May 13.—Following announcement of the acceptance of the resignation of Lieutenant Colonel J. S. McKnight as assistant adjutant of the State of California, and an examination of the report made by a board of inquiry on attempts alleged to have been made by McKnight to collect funds for the Los Angeles Infantry Association with a percentage for himself, Adjutant General J. J. Borree yesterday issued a statement in which he declared the matter settled.

The statement follows: In part: "The court of inquiry recommended that Lieut. Col. J. S. McKnight be ordered to resign. This recommendation has been complied with, and his resignation has been formally accepted. The entire matter is therefore concluded."

Long Beach Suffers $250,000 Fire Loss

LONG BEACH, May 13.—Damage estimated at $250,000 was done here last night by fire which practically destroyed the building occupied by the Colonial Chocolate company and the W. L. Lunde company, cement contractors. Of the total loss, $150,000 was on stock, equipment and machinery of the chocolate company, was placed at $150,000.

SILVER BOWLING TROPHY IS GIVEN TO ROTARY CLUB

Oakland Players Receive the Prize for Defeating Teams in East.

Reports from the various committee chairmen that they were actively engaged in the tournament of the International Rotary Club silver bowling trophy to the club featured the luncheon yesterday of the Oakland Rotary Club at the Hotel Oakland. The Oakland Rotary bowling team won the championship last year at Atlantic City and duplicated the feat last month at Chicago. Members of the team, who took part in the tournament, were: Garver Ballard, Norman De Vaux, Carsten Schmidt, Harry Peton, August Gearhardt, Ralph Whitney and Frank Reed. The appointment of J. J. Robinson as "Drive Commissioner," Larry Moore as "Fresh Air Commissioner" and Frank Reed as "Bowling Commissioner" was announced by President Carsten Schmidt.

The club golf team also announced that it was ready to compete with a team from the Kiwanis club for golf honors of the Eastbay business club. Visiting Rotarians were introduced as follows: Larry Wilburn of San Francisco, Carl Shannon and George Perley of Modesto, Asa Foster of Long Beach, Charles Clark of Peoria, Ill., B. H. Dodge and Roy Gilmore of Shanghai, China; George Leslie of Los Angeles, Charles Hesseman of Sacramento, and James Pendleton of San Diego.

College Romance Leads to Marriage

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—A college romance, which had its inception during the war days, culminated in the wedding last night in the chambers of Superior Judge James M. Trout of Miss Melba Elroyse Berry, 19, a junior student at Stanford university, and Francis H. Bennett, 25, a senior student at the university.

The bride is the daughter of W. Henry Berry, former owner of the Los Angeles hotel club and one-time owner of the San Francisco club. She gave her residence as Los Angeles. Bennett is a resident of Joplin, Mo.

Mrs. Bennett was a prominent member of the Masquers' club and active as a member of the executive committee of the Associated Women of Stanford. She is a member of the Alpha Phi sorority. The couple left immediately for the south.

CAMERON DAM DEFENDER FREE; GIVEN PARDON

MADISON, Wis., May 13.—John P. Dietz, "defender of the Cameron Dam," serving a 20-year sentence for murder, today was pardoned by Governor John J. Blaine.

Dietz left the Waupun prison at 11 a. m., accompanied by his wife and daughter. He had served ten years in prison for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Oscar Hart.

In announcing the pardon, Governor Blaine expressed doubt as to the guilt of Dietz. Dietz was convicted in 1911 sentenced to life imprisonment. The sentence was afterward commuted to 20 years. The pardon of Dietz closes one of the most dramatic incidents in the history of the criminal courts of Wisconsin. For eight years prior to his conviction, Dietz held off process servers and conducted single-handed a fight against powerful lumber interests. Dietz stood off a small army of deputies while barricaded in a barn at his farm. Hundreds of shots were exchanged during the battle of several hours duration. He surrendered because he feared for the safety of members of his family.

Dietz refused the services of a lawyer at his trial, conducting his own case.

SPANIARDS WIN BATTLE.
MADRID, May 13.—An official dispatch from the Spanish front says that the Spanish forces after desperate native resistance, have captured three positions at Hand, Harch and Gaych. The Spaniards lost a captain and 15 privates killed and five officers and 65 privates wounded.

"If I Could Only Belch Up That Gas I Know I Would Feel Better"

How often have you felt that way? How often have you wished for something to give you genuine and lasting relief for Gas?

Don't buy any ordinary dyspepsia tablet for temporary results. Go to a first-class drug store, ask for a bottle of genuine Bismann's Gas-Tablets; take three tablets an hour before meals, not more than indigestion, then watch. Now comes a surprise. No more gas, no more smothered feeling, no difficult breathing, and no bloating. Remember Bismann's Gas-Tablets are not only for the relief, but also for the prevention of Gas. Most people with Gas suffer from nervous dyspepsia, not from indigestion. Bismann's Gas-Tablets are sold in the famous yellow package for one dollar.

Bismann's Gas-Tablets are for sale by all reliable druggists and The Owl Drug Co., J. Bismann, Chemist, San Francisco. Advertisement.

C. A. Farnsworth, campaign manager for the drive, with headquarters at 213 Bonshaw building, announced today that although considerable money has come into the headquarters, there still remains a large amount to be contributed before the rescue and maternity home at East Twenty-eighth Street and Garden Avenue can be completed.

This store is just out of the high-rent district, does a strictly cash business, makes no deliveries, and, because of being one of a chain of ten hat shops, enjoys buying advantages equaled by no other California millinery concern—in short, the Fred W. Hogg stores occupy the same status in the millinery business as the most famous cash-and-carry groceries in the food business.

As an instance of the way children's hats are priced here, note the offering at left.

Weddings Planned for Last of Month

Two May weddings are scheduled—those of Miss Marjorie Ward and Joseph C. Alter on the 19th, and Miss Ruth Barnes and Homer Henderson. The Ward-Alter wedding is to be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ward, in Santa Cruz. Miss Margaret Alter will attend the bride and Edward Hussey will be best man. Officiating will be Rev. Lapsley A. McAfee of the First Presbyterian Church of Berkeley, and Dr. Francis W. Russell of St. John's Presbyterian Church in the college city. Both Miss Ward and her fiancé are graduates of the University of California. Alter is a Phi Lambda Upsilon and Sigma Xi honor man.

St. John's Presbyterian church has been chosen as the background for the marriage of Miss Barnes and Henderson, the service to be read during the last week in May, with the Rev. Francis W. Russell officiating. Miss Margaret Fiddle will be maid of honor and the bridesmaids the Misses Alyce Smith, Marion Gately, Florence Daniels, Muriel Cooper, Helen Taylor and Lela Ewert.

Miss Barnes is the daughter of Mrs. M. E. Barnes of Dwight way and a member of the Phi Mu society.

Mrs. Ralph Emmons will be hostess Tuesday at a bridge tea when Miss Margaret Alderson will be the honor guest. A score of the club friends of the bride-elect are to be guests. Miss Alderson will wed Charles Gordon Twoby June 23.

BERKELEY WEDDING IN AFTERNOON

Miss Marlon Mills and Frederick Lewis Shanks are to be married tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McVicar Mills in Russell street. Mrs. James McVicar Mills, Jr., is to be matron of honor with Miss Margaret Mills, sister of the bride-elect, as maid of honor.

Two little cousins of the bride—Frances and Joan Virginia Moulton, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moulton of Ukiah—will serve as flower maidens. A buffet luncheon will be served following the ceremony.

Mrs. Arthur L. Greene is to be hostess at a series of informal luncheons, the first of which was held yesterday for a dozen friends. Blue and yellow linens were used in the appointments. The second luncheon will be Thursday of next week and a third the week following.

Monday, June 13, has been chosen by Miss Eunice Roeth as the date for her marriage to Lawrence Sherman, the wedding to take place at the Roeth home in Mountain avenue. Mrs. George Roeth, Jr. (Pay Watson), is to be matron of honor and Miss Guglielmo Roeth will be maid of honor. The quartet of bridesmaids will include the Misses Norma and Helen Roeth, Anita Weichert and Sarah Bailey.

Fuller of San Francisco gave a dinner dance for their niece, Miss Kinkelin, who is a member of this year's graduating class at the University of California. Miss Kinkelin is a Kappa Kappa Gamma. About one hundred guests were present.

This evening at the Berkeley Tennis Club a dinner dance will be given with Les Gais Vivieux as hosts. Unique decorations, cabaret numbers and other innovations will amuse the dancers. Some of the participants in the special dance numbers will be Mrs. Frank Roller, Miss Maureen Sullivan and Frederick Warford.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sprague Church and family will leave Sunday for Nevada on an extended trip to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. George L. Dugan, who until her marriage two seasons ago was Miss Gertrude Edwards of this city. They will make an indefinite stay.

Program Out For Congress Of Mothers

By EDNA R. KINARD.
When state officers of the California Congress of Mothers and the several hundred delegates to the twentieth annual convention assemble in Oakland this month, they are to learn something of the hospitality of the local Federation. Motor buses, lunches and luncheons have been fitted into every hour which the deliberations of the four-day meeting overlooks. The brilliant event will be the reception of Thursday night, May 25, which will particularly honor the leaders in the parent-teacher movement. Mrs. F. V. Vollmer, to whom has been given direction of the elaborate function in theatory ballroom of Hotel Oakland, and her lieutenants today announce the program, keeping, however, some delightful secrets for a last surprise.

Greetings will be extended the convention by Mrs. Peter K. Kramer, president of Oakland Federation, and by Mrs. Harry Ewing, state president.

Alameda China Painter Held With Fair Immigrant At Angel Island.

Thomas P. Jorgenson, Alameda china painter, and Miss Denny Schierling, aged 27, are being held in the custody of the federal immigration officials at the United States immigration station at Angel Island today following their arrest yesterday on charges of violating the immigration laws.

Jorgenson's arrest followed almost on the heels of a divorce decree granted in his favor. Jorgenson and Miss Schierling were arrested in the Jorgenson home at 1616 Clinton avenue, Alameda, following which they were removed to Angel Island. They will be held there until the hearing on the warrants for their arrest. The warrants came from Washington, D. C.

Miss Schierling came to this country from Denmark some months ago. Immigration officials said they were not at liberty to disclose the specific charges against Jorgenson and Miss Schierling but the revival of a romance of 12 years standing is said to be involved in the case.

When Jorgenson obtained his divorce Felix Strubelther, the best man at his wedding, was named as co-respondent. At about the same time Miss Schierling came to Alameda from Denmark, it is said. Among the various questions reported involved in the charges against Jorgenson and Miss Schierling, is whether or not it will develop that Jorgenson sent money unlawfully to bring Miss Schierling to this country. If this charge is proven it is declared that Miss Schierling, who has been in this country only eight months, may be deported. Miss Schierling was employed in Jorgenson's shop at 1529 Webster street as a saleswoman.

Church Gets His Check, Stranger Takes Collection

(By Associated Press)
RIVERSIDE, Cal., May 13.—The pastor of a local church was taking a special collection. Eighteen dollars in small change had been received, but $2 more was needed. After repeated pleadings by the minister a stranger arose and said: "If you will cash my check, I'll make it $20."

The offer was accepted and the stranger departed with the entire collection.

That was last Sunday evening. Today the pastor reported to E. S. Dices, chief of police, the check had been returned marked "no funds." The stranger had disappeared.

STOMACH TROUBLES AND NERVOUSNESS DUE TO BAD TEETH

Often More Serious Ills Find Root in Decaying or Defected Teeth

"To enjoy perfect health consistently, you must have perfect teeth," says Dr. R. C. Anderson, the prominent dentist with offices at 1225 Broadway (over the Owl Drug Store). "Good teeth with a perfect bite means proper chewing and breaking up of food taken into your mouth," he says. "Few of us fully comprehend the real importance of properly chewing of what we eat and proper digestion. If teeth are missing, saliva (a fluid secreted from glands in the mouth to promote digestion) cannot be correctly distributed, and therefore the food is permitted to ferment and rot within the walls of your stomach before it is passed on out of your system, without doing your body a particle of good. "Never allow dead teeth or 'snags' to remain in the mouth, because one bad tooth starts another," continues Dr. Anderson. "Have them removed

FIRE CHIEF WANTS HIGH PRESSURE WATER SYSTEM

Improvement Contemplated As Protection for Congested Portion of City.

Construction of five units of high pressure fire mains designed to afford greater protection and lower insurance rates in the industrial and congested portions of the city, will be urged again before the Oakland council by Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead and a special committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

Whitehead has investigated the subject on request of the chamber committee, has dug up figures of a similar investigation made two years ago, and is ready to present them to the council. It is estimated that an expenditure of $456,000 would be required and the contemplated plan of financing is to ask for a yearly budget sum set aside.

COSTS IN DETAIL
Estimated cost of the units under the plan is:
Oak street, main, Second street, to pumping plant $ 69,000
Market street, main, Second street, to Fourteenth street 60,000
Nineteenth street, to Broadway, Telegraph, San Pablo and Clay street manins 249,000
Eight street, main, Market to Madison streets 60,000

Home Chew as Popular as Home Brew? Ask the Tribune

By Gum! Home Brew is giving way to Home Chew. No less than half a dozen persons called up The TRIBUNE'S Information Department, Lakeside 6000, today and asked for directions for making chewing gum at home.

Now, there are 14 different approved methods of making chewing gum, but Home Chew, like Home Brew, has its attendant difficulties. You are not likely to be arrested for violation of the prohibition regulations—the blue law advocates haven't gone quite that far as yet—but, for a complexly, a gum factory has a rum factory backed completely off the boards.

As in the case of home brew, the chewing gum formula looks like a problem in short division—perfectly simple. But—

"HOME CHEW" DIRECTIONS.
You have to mix your paraffine, or glucose, or wax, with brains. Otherwise you might as well put in your time chewing a rubber band or a tenpenny nail. As in the case of all things manufactured in the Great American Home for chewing or swallowing purposes, it takes practice to attain to practical results.

Of the 14 distinct recipes for making chewing gum, the following is one of the simplest. The manufacture of chewing gum, however, is like baking bread or writing a poem—only more so. If your first effort turns out to be a pot of muckilage or a wall of rotting wax, try again. The formula isn't at fault. You have to get the feel of it. So here goes, and good luck to you:

Noli balsam, 1 oz.; benzoin, 1 oz.; powdered sugar, 1 oz. Melt together, mix well, and roll into sticks. Drop a penny into a gum machine. Another and simpler method is to drop a penny into a gum machine.

SAMPLE QUESTIONS
Among the hundreds of queries that have come in, was the following letter from an Oakland woman: "Please give me the names of the state senators from each of the following states, viz., New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Illinois and Ohio."

New York: Wm. M. Calder and Jas. W. Wadsworth.
Pennsylvania: Philander C. Knox and Boies Penrose.
Maryland: Joseph I. France and O. B. Weller.
Illinois: Wm. B. McKinley and Medin McCormick.
Ohio: Altee Pomerene and Frank E. Willis.

The TRIBUNE'S Information Bureau has been going less than a week but it has gotten away to a flying start. Letters and telephone calls in a continuous stream, and even personal visits, have resulted in the inauguration of the department.

With the exception of legal and school problems and queries as to the time of day, The TRIBUNE'S Information Bureau will answer either by telephone or mail, questions on general subjects. If answers are desired by mail, stamps must be enclosed with query. Prompt and accurate responses are guaranteed.

Looking for information? "Ask The TRIBUNE." Information Bureau, Lakeside 6000.

JESTERS PLAN CLOSING PLAY

The final performance of the 1921 Spring Season of the Jesters' Workshop of the Fremont High School will be given on Friday evening, and will be in the nature of an international performance, consisting of several nationalities. The play, "The Melting Pot," is especially appropriate, since its characters portray world brotherhood among the several nations—Jew, Gentile, English and Russian.

The Jesters' Workshop was established by D. B. McEntyre and Helen B. Colgan in the fall of 1920 and has given twelve performances consisting of nineteen plays since that time.

"The Melting Pot" was dedicated to the democratic Theodore Roosevelt by its author, Israel Zangwill, who has done more than any other one man to encourage racial tolerance. The play was published in 1909, and has since been presented for months at a time at the Garrick Playhouse of London, to portray the romance of America to the English people. Walter Whitehead, the widely known actor and producer, presented it in Washington for an entire season.

The play never has been given west of the Rocky Mountains before, and this presentation will be the first big performance of any of Zangwill's plays since the war. At this time, "The Melting Pot" is especially appropriate, since its characters portray world brotherhood among the several nations—Jew, Gentile, English and Russian.

Blossom Taber, Murial Kilgo, Eleanor Cox, Elizabeth Meschem, Irving Waugh, Max Brassfield, James Neal, Mitchell Allen and Rhuele Reitze are the nine Senior Jesters that the cast of "The Melting Pot" includes.

DAKOTAN GOES IN FOR 'FINAL PLUNGE' DROWNS

STOCKTON, May 12.—Taking his last swim in California before leaving for his home in North Dakota, 28-year-old Rudolf Henke lost his life here. Henke, who, with his wife, was a member of a picnic party ten miles west of Lodi, declared that before he left California he intended to have his last swim.

The party visited White Slough, where they had been fishing in the earlier part of yesterday, and Henke plunged in. He struck out for the opposite bank and was seized with cramps in the middle of the pool. Jacob Snyder plunged in to rescue him and was nearly drowned. The body was recovered by dragging the bottom of the slough.

Mr. and Mrs. Henke had been visiting friends at Lodi, and intended to leave today for their home at Pessenden, North Dakota.

Few Japanese of California Marry

SACRAMENTO, May 12.—At the request of the Japanese Association, L. E. Ross, head of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, started with the opening of this year to tabulate marriages by races.

Ross' report shows that an average of less than 25 Japanese couples are married in California monthly. In January of this year out of a total of 3220 marriages performed in the State, only 23 were of Japanese. In February the total number of marriages was 2898 and of these 23 were Japanese couples.

SILVER TEA PLANNED.
ALAMEDA, May 13.—The Haight School Mothers' club members will be hostesses at a silver tea in the school auditorium this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The pupils of the third and fourth grades will present a special program under the direction of Miss Rose.

What's Happening in the Motor World

Arrangements are practically complete for the Automobile Day Parade which starts out Broadway at 1:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Automobile Day was proclaimed by Governor Stephens and will be celebrated throughout the state. The chief event of the day is the parade, which will be held in the city of the state, the progress made in motor transportation in the last few years.

The parade will have in its line-up old cars, dating back to 1909 and all ages, up to and including the very latest in new cars. There will be trucks and horse-drawn vehicles showing how we have progressed in transportation methods.

There will be a 1902 Franklin in the line-up, running under its own power. An Oldsmobile, made about 1914, will be there and it is expected to have a one-cylinder Cadillac at the start.

The parade will form at Piedmont avenue and Broadway. Here, all the cars, trucks and horse-drawn vehicles, will move down Broadway to Fourth street, then over Fourth to Clay and out Clay to Seventeenth, then to San Pablo avenue and Washington, and finally to the city hall, Fifth and over to Webster, and on out to Twenty-fourth street where it will disband.

There will be over a hundred cars in the parade, all sorts of kinds and conditions from time immemorial, that is, in the automotive sense of the word. The public will have a wonderful chance to see the progress made in automobiles in the last ten or fifteen years, and the comparisons will be starting.

The parade is being held under the auspices of the Motor Car Dealers' Division of the Alameda County Automobile Trade Association.

The city will furnish some motor fire apparatus to show how the system of fighting fires has changed.

From present indications on the eve of the affair, it promises to equal any spectacle Oakland has staged in the past few years.

LINCOLN MAKES A RECORD.
The Lincoln is making a notable showing for itself in annexing western records. This week a model of that make slashed the Los Angeles-Phoenix time to 11 hours, 10 minutes, a mark made this spring by another fast automobile.

Details of the daring performance came this morning to Jim Gray, manager of the Gray Motor Co. establishment in Oakland, and the facts in connection with the run indicate a drive replete with thrills over roads that combine every sort of going, from smooth boulevard surfaces to the roughest kind of rock roads, a real touch of bathing in deep desert sands, bucking over washed trails, finally whirling into Phoenix twelve hours and sixteen minutes after leaving the Southern California metropolis.

NEARLY SIXTY MILES AN HOUR.
The first start of 110 miles an hour was made in two hours even. Mecca was reached in just one minute less than three hours. What is known as the Shafter Wash, a treacherous stretch of desert waste, was made in high gear, and then Blythe, a small settlement near the border line, was made in five hours and forty-five minutes.

The deep dust of the Dry Lake near Quartzsite was plowed through at high speed and then was even a mile-a-minute speed over the plain to the Hassayampa. Then came reasonably good roads through Buckeye and a cement pavement was struck ten miles from Phoenix. Checking in was done at the Phoenix postoffice at exactly 11:50 o'clock, California time. Gas was taken at Indio, Blythe, Salome and Hassayampa. The radiator cap was not unscrewed.

The car was a regular seven-passenger from stock, with all fittings in place, weighing 5000 pounds. Bramlette drove all the way, his brother acting as mechanic, getting through in good shape. They had scouted the road a week ago.

NASH FIRST TO TAIHOI.
Nash is first to Lake Tahoe this year over the Piuteville road. The news flashed to the world from the snowy fastnesses of the high Sierra country, and means that an automobile has once more conquered the road that was claimed to be impassable to anything on wheels.

Ted O'Day, of the Pacific Nash Motor Company, was in charge of the crew of the Nash. With him were Lloyd Lonkey, Edward and William Tarpey. Preparation for the run was made by taking along a Nash Quad truck, which carried food, provisions and tools, and followed the car through the snow-drifts.

As far as Strawberry the party had no trouble, but shortly beyond this point there was much snow, and drifts ten and twelve feet had to be negotiated. The mountaineers in the country up there told the Nash drivers that the roads were utterly impassable and an airplane scout reported this to be true, but the motor car drivers decided to push on and won, after seven days of grueling fight, with car, and snow.

HARD BATTLE MADE.
It took five days of continuous

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1921.

'IS MARRIAGE WORTH SAVING?'

Recently some statistics on divorces in the United States were compiled. They showed six counties in the United States as recording more divorces than marriages. These were Pawnee County, Oklahoma; Washoe County, Nevada, in which the amiable Reno is located; Trinity County, California; Butherford County, Tennessee; and Union and Clackamas Counties, Oregon. Now, the significant thing about this is not that there were only six counties in the country that showed more divorces than marriages; it is the fact that several hundred counties in all the several States were near to the line of fifty-fifty on the divorce and marriage record.

These statistics, and doubtless many other facts worthy of consideration, provoked the Rt. Rev. William Hall Moreland, Bishop of Sacramento, to enquire whether marriage is worth saving? Without anticipating the answer of the distinguished clergyman, it is patent that the question is wholly timely. When there are about as many divorces as marriages in the country it is plain that there is a looseness in the attachment to the convention of marriage and a friendliness for the practice of divorce that justifies serious thought.

The question is really a fearful one for Christianized countries, for all countries where the institution of marriage has been developed into a law and a legally recognized practice of the state. Historians and moralists will hold—they do hold—that civilized countries have attained greatness because of their moral ideals. Bishop Moreland specially emphasizes the view that the United States has attained greatness because of its high ideals. The homes of the American people, he says, are the citadels of the nation's strength.

Therefore, when we discover that in many districts and states of the nation there is apparently no compunction against breaking up homes through the instrumentality of divorce, where the marriage status is regarded as something that may be disrupted without second thought, with an infirm, or an utter absence of consideration for the children of a marriage, it is well to enquire whether the citadels of the nation's strength are in danger. Is marriage worth saving? is a timely question, indeed. Bishop Moreland describes exhibitions of "barnyard morality":

"Lustful males, marrying for physical satisfaction chiefly, cast off wives at pleasure as if they were kept mistresses. Mining kings, oil millionaires and war profiteers, grown suddenly rich, have put away the faithful partner of the days of poverty and struggle and lavished their new made wealth upon actresses. Selfish women, sacrificing men to their passion for jewels, clothes and luxury, are encouraged under our laws to sell their bodies to the highest bidder, yet continue to move in decent society as respectable women. This is no fancy picture. It describes what is going on today all over the United States. Conditions are growing worse.

"If easy divorce continues at the present rate in this country the ideal of true marriage, as the union of one man and one woman until death shall part, will gradually fade from the consciousness of the American people and be replaced by a kind of barnyard morality. Even now our young people, knowing that the law permits a consecutive polygamy, enter into the married state with the deliberate purpose of breaking it off, should the first attempt be unsatisfactory, and of drawing another ticket in the lottery."

The Sacramento clergyman believes marriage is worth saving. He laments that the highest divorce rates are found in the Rocky Mountains and Pacific Coast States. Restless, pleasure-seeking people, he says, who desire to be rid of their life partners, flock from all over the country to the far West to take advantage of the lax regulations concerning divorce. He believes a remedy should be applied: for in answering his question, he says:

"The issue goes far beyond the feelings of individuals who are unhappily mated. The foundations of the home are involved. The alternative of licensed free love is presented. The question for the United States to decide is whether it is more serious that individuals should suffer or that marriage should be ultimately lost. Easy divorce is the darkest cloud today upon our American life."

PROMOTING FRIENDSHIP.

Satisfactory and pleasant results should follow the "friendship" tour Wednesday of some 300 members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce to neighboring cities in the Eastbay counties. Visits were made to Pleasanton, Livermore, Tracy, Byron, Brentwood, Antioch, Pittsburg, Martinez and other points in Alameda, Contra Costa and San Joaquin counties.

The spirit of this visit was better acquaintanceship between the business and professional men of Oakland and of the outlying cities. The result that ought to follow is better realization of the wisdom of every community to help itself first, by giving support to the home life and business, and of the helpfulness that comes from better understanding by and cooperation among the neighboring communities in matters in which they may help or wish to rely upon the assistance of each other.

More of such effort should be put forward. There is developing in the Eastbay counties not only a spirit of cooperation, but the fruits of "working together." There is an increasing recognition by the interior cities and counties of the usefulness to them of the harbor and rail terminal facilities on the continental side of San Francisco bay. For example, most of the surplus grain grown in Northern California now is coming to elevators located in Oakland and to ships tied up and deep-water wharves on the Eastbay shore. It is found that there is very substantial economy in handling products destined for other parts of trade only once instead of four times.

Thus business practices and economies are bringing the continental shore and the interior districts into closer relations. Tours by the business organization which work for wider personal acquaintance and understanding are an added influence for better conditions. It is to be hoped that the business men of the interior cities will also adopt the policy of inspecting conditions in other cities, a policy which will bring them to the tidewater district to see what is here and what is going on here.

NEW YORK DROPS PRIMARY.

Governor Miller of New York has signed a legislative act partly abolishing the direct primary system in that State and restoring the system of nominating candidates for State and judicial offices by party convention. New York is the first large State in the country to turn its back definitely on the direct primary reform and restore party responsibility in government. Idaho has made radical changes in her system and Illinois and other States have expressed a deal of dissatisfaction, but New York is to drop the expensive double election scheme.

Under the revised New York law delegates to the nominating party convention will be chosen at a primary in which the enrolled voters of a party will participate. The candidates for governor and other State officers will be chosen by the delegates and will stand on the platform of a party approved by the party. Candidates for office will have to engage in but one political campaign—the general election—and will thus be saved the tremendous expense of conducting a primary campaign for their nomination.

This return to the party convention system is frankly and forthrightly performed. There is to be no quibbling or compromise about it. The people will take part in the nomination of candidates, but they will do so through delegates they select to act for them in a party convention. In this manner the party will assume responsibility for the platform of principles the candidate is expected to be guided by. That platform will also be one of the issues—or a summary of all the issues—in the campaign.

There are two classes of idle shipping, the schooners with no crew to take them over the bar and the schooners that use to bump the bar.

Mr. Mellon refers to soda water and ice cream taxes as "uninane" taxes. But the list of uninane taxes is much longer than that.

TWO MEN.

Discrediting of A. C. Townley, head of the Non-partisan League, goes on apace. The conviction of him and his former Minnesota manager, Joseph Gilbert, on charges of conspiracy to encourage disloyalty during the war, has been upheld by the Supreme court of Minnesota. It is fortunate that the case has been reviewed not only by a higher court, but at a time when the so-called hysteria of patriotism has had time to subside.

Those who carefully followed Townley's activities and writings during the war were never in doubt as to their criminal character. But like some of his more intellectual brothers in the radical fold, he has for the most part so protected himself by words capable of double meaning as to make the case against him seem clear to the sentimentally inclined. The ruling of the state highest court is a prescient rest for their fears that A. C. Townley is a persecuted man.

One of the staunchest opponents of Townley's person and schemes was Mr. Charles W. Ames of St. Paul where death was pronounced a fortnight or more ago. In spite of talents which touched many sides of life, Mr. Ames had given up much of his time during the past few years to keeping the country alive to the extreme danger of the machine which Townley had built up. His knowledge of the diabolical workings was based upon first-hand observation, and he boldly asserted that Townley was the most influential and pernicious boss that this country has ever seen.

Himself a man of the broadest culture and a convinced liberal, he cherished as his life the American principles under which this country had become an inspiration to the world. His enterprise in combating the panacea of radicals in the Northwest is a glowing instance of what a high-minded citizen can accomplish when he throws off the complacent inertia which is the besetting sin of most well-meaning Americans.—The Weekly Review

NOTES and COMMENT

The automobile pageant set for next Saturday in San Francisco ought to be highly interesting, recalling the days when so many who are now staid and serious were young and exuberant and rode those picturesque high wheels. Also it will recall other days to see a regular old-time stage again, with its dextrous driver and six horses drawing the swaying vehicle.

Those men who ruthlessly broke in on the woman government of Jackson, Wyoming, have been vanquished. The women came again, at the last election, and succeeded in electing women to all the offices. Miss Pearl Williams, marshal, will see that the men do not cut up in their chagrin over their defeat.

Complaint is made that the voice of the people was not heard at Sacramento. It is to be accepted without question that the complaint can be borne out. But if it can be "the people" have a remedy at the next election in choosing those whom they think will more definitely represent them. The people can never be absolutely sure about this, but if they keep on trying they will in time approximate real representatives.

The struggle between Basity and Coffroth over the Tijuana race track has been won in the Mexican courts by Basity. It does not appear just what the winner has won, however, for Governor Epigonio y Barro Jr. has issued a pronouncement to the effect that he intends to interdict all forms of gambling at Tijuana. However, the Governor has just been indicted, and may feel like a new broom.

The president of the University of California found the commencement day exercises something more than a show function. There were 1651 graduates, and bestowing diplomas was a matter involving some physical exertion, and requiring more than an hour of discerning work. The extent of this great institution gets a new slant from this angle.

The Richmond Record Herald fixes the modern boy's status. "The modern boy seldom plays hockey school is far too entertaining. He never reads ten-cent novels, they are not in it with twenty-cent movies. He does not hang around street corners, he cuts around them in a roadster. He does not smoke out behind the barn, it is a garage now."

Things must now be very different in Germany. The Kaiser in his heyday merely ordered. He did not design to threaten. The idea of his threatening to resign to carry out a point would have been about the most ridiculous thing possible. But that is the way President Ebert brought them to time.

Perhaps aerial travel will have an added vogue through the journey in an airplane of a woman 82 years old from Merced to San Francisco, and her testifying upon arrival that it is the only way to travel. Juvenile people of 60 and down ought to overcome any timidity they may feel after this.

The town council of Venice—our California Venice—cancelled the licenses of all the soothsayers, palmists and miscellaneous seers the other day, just as they were getting into a profitable stride. It may be tough that things will have to happen down there of their own accord now, without being tipped off.

THE DRIVE THAT FAILED.

FLORENCE

Florence, which recently was reported in newspaper despatches to be the starting point for expeditions by armed Italian Fascists, or extreme nationalists, against communists, had "captains of industry," business administrations, unemployment, and more by the proletariat of its woolen shops when Lawrence and Lowell were happy hunting grounds for Indians and Columbus was unborn, according to a bulletin issued by the National Geographic Society, from its Washington, D. C. headquarters.

Florence, one of the most famous of the world's art centers, has not had the peaceful existence that is sometimes associated with art, says the bulletin. "But it has had wealth in abundance which is perhaps more important, for art seldom develops in poverty-stricken communities in the twelfth thirteenth and fourteenth centuries this city-state was perhaps the wealthiest community in all Europe. More than 30,000 workers were employed in its woolen industries and its traders were found throughout the known world. Florence was to such an extent a synonym for wealth that, when a Florentine was taken prisoner, the ransom demanded was twice that for a citizen of another community. The coin of Florence, the florin, was the standard money of Europe."

"This widespread commerce naturally poured an increasing stream of wealth into Florence and made its merchants and proprietors opulent. The city fairly bristled with 'captains of industry' and 'merchant princes.' The forms of a republic had been established but from the first it was strictly a business men's government. The guilds or associations of the leading merchants in the several lines of trade each elected members to the governing body. Later the representatives of some of the minor guilds were permitted to join the governing group. The laborers made strenuous efforts to obtain a voice in what might be referred to in the terms of today as the city's 'business government,' but except for a brief period following a revolt, were excluded. For a period nobles were denied a voice also and the town was a business men's paradise."

"The famous Medici family were among those enriched by the industry and trade of Florence. They owned a chain of sixteen banks about Europe. By the generous use of their money and influence they became the patrons and directors of Florence and later its dual rulers through the terms of the republic were retained for some time."

"Florence shows today the results of its great medieval wealth and the fact that it was the fountainhead of the Renaissance, for the city probably contains more art treasures than can be found in any similar area. Among the masters who worked in Florence—many of them born and reared there—were Michelangelo, Raphael, Leonardo da Vinci, Giotto, Donatello, Fra Filippo Lippi, Botticelli, and Andrea del Sarto, besides a host of lesser painters, sculptors and architects. Dante and Boccaccio among the greatest literary lights of the Renaissance, were Florentines as were Galileo, philosopher, and Michelangelo, statesman."

"Numerous palaces, bridges, towers and sacred structures show the genius of Florentine architects. Among the latter is the cathedral, the world-famed Duomo. Observers have compared the feeling of vastness which one has on viewing the mighty dome of this edifice to that which comes from contemplating the pyramids. Nowhere else in the world has man built a roof which encloses so great a pillared void. He who ventures up the many stairs that

BOO! YOUR HEALTH

Mumps Are "Catching," So Keep the Sick One Alone.

By ROYAL E. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

There are some diseases the mere mention of which raises a laugh. One of these is mumps. The very name, somehow or other, strikes me as funny. Add to this the picture of the swollen and distorted face, quite like a newspaper cartoon, and all the makings are present for a fit of laughter.

But mumps is no joke. Sometimes it is pretty serious business. The possible complications are painful and sometimes serious in their effects.

Under the jaw, near the lobe of the ear, is a saliva producing gland, called the "parotid gland." In mumps this gland becomes inflamed, swollen and painful.

The disease is communicable and frequently occurs in epidemic form. The exact cause, the specific germ, is not yet known.

It commonly appears between the ages of 5 and 15. However, it is not at all unusual for adults to be attacked. Within a few months two of my friends in middle life have had the mumps.

All contagious or communicable diseases have a more or less defined period of incubation, as it is called. In mumps, the disease appears about two weeks after exposure.

The attack comes on suddenly. The patient feels ill. He may have a chill, followed by rise of temperature, headache, dryness of the skin and the usual symptoms of fever.

These symptoms may precede the swelling of the gland by a day or so. But, if it does not come before, on the second day there appears swelling and sensitiveness in front of and below the ear. The swelling may come on suddenly and at times may be enormous.

Naturally, with all this swelling, it is difficult to move the jaw. The mouth is filled with saliva, and it may actually drool from the mouth.

In about a week the swelling goes down, and in a little while longer the patient seems entirely well. Occasionally, however, the other side follows suit in a few days and the symptoms are repeated.

In the complicated cases, other glands of the body, remotely located, become involved.

The patient should be put to bed and kept quiet. Simple, soft food or fluids are indicated, because chewing is painful. Acid things, like pickles, should be avoided. There is great pain and unhappiness. It is not an uncommon thing in the country to determine the diagnosis by giving the suspected person a pickle. If he can eat it without discomfort it is thought to mean that the patient has not mumps.

Hot water applications will relieve the pain and reduce the swelling. Incision and drainage, an old remedy applied with promise of comfort. The child should be kept from school, of course, and away from the other children in the household.

Woman Tells of Fight to Save Husband from Rival

Fighting bravely for self-control, the body shaking with sobs as she told the story of her husband's alleged infidelity, his preference for a younger and more attractive woman—Mrs. Emily Lambert, 54 years old, wrinkled, bent and gray, continued today in Superior Judge George Samuel's court, where she faces a charge of shooting her husband, Thomas Lambert, on March 28.

Step by step, faltering at times, the woman under the direct examination of one of her attorneys, John H. Toland, recited the events from last Thanksgiving, when, she says, she first learned of her husband's affair with the other woman, until the night of March 28, when she saw him and Mrs. Anna Louise Irwin of 1445 Sherman street, Alameda, together, and fired the pistol shot that is responsible for her standing trial. The entire morning court session was taken up by direct examination by Attorney Toland and cross examination by Deputy District Attorney Earl Warren, who is seeking a conviction of the woman. The cross examination ran into this afternoon.

WATCHED HER RIVAL.
Under questions propounded by Attorney Toland, Mrs. Lambert told this morning how, from across the street, she watched Mrs. Irwin pay a visit to her husband's room in a Thirteenth street rooming house; how, after watching for three hours, she saw the woman leave, and then how she went to her husband's room and pleaded with him to return to his home.

Lambert, according to his wife's testimony, called the proprietor of the rooming house and had his wife thrown into the street.

"I'd like to tear your heart out piece by piece and throw it in the gutter," Lambert snarled at her, according to her testimony.

"Then," the witness added, "he struck me in the side."

Mrs. Lambert said that she went to the Thirteenth street rooming house and inquired of the proprietor if her husband had a room there. She said that the keeper of the place said he had, and allowed her to go to his room.

IN HUSBAND'S ROOM.
"There was no one there," said the witness. "Tom told me before that he had this room by the week because he often had and there, but he had it by the night and paid a dollar a night. Then I went across the street and waited. Pretty soon a street car came along and my husband helped Mrs. Irwin get off."

"They entered the rooming house," Mrs. Lambert continued. "From where I waited I could see him light the light in his room. The light burned until about 11 o'clock when I saw Mrs. Irwin come out. She got on a car. Then I went up to my husband's room."

"He opened the door and I said: 'Oh, Tom, why are you doing this? You told me you had this room by the week.'"

"He asked me what I wanted, and then went down and had the proprietor throw me out."

"I asked him to come home with me and take me away from Oakland and that terrible woman, as he promised to do, but he said he never wanted to see me again and he would never live with me again anywhere."

HAD WOMAN'S KEY.
Mrs. Lambert told of a time at her home when a key dropped from her husband's pocket. Toland presented the key as evidence and Mrs. Lambert identified it as a key to Mrs. Irwin's house on Sherman street in Alameda. Asked how she knew it was a key to the woman's house, she said that after she found it she took it and tried it in the door.

"The key fell out of his pocket, she said, and he got down on his hands and knees and searched all over the floor. He asked me if I had seen it, and I said no. Finally I told him I had and asked him why he had a key like that. He told me he had carried that key for six months for 'good luck.' Then I told him I knew whose key it was and what he had it for."

"If I ever hear of you going to her husband and Mrs. Irwin and shot Lambert in the groin. She said that she had no recollection of doing the shooting and had no desire to injure either her husband or the woman, but simply wanted to have him come back to her. She said this event occurred, after she had watched her husband and Mrs. Irwin in a room in a house in Alameda, through the window, with a pair of field glasses.

The witness was then turned over for cross-examination.

When Judge Samuel granted a recess, this morning, Lambert walked from the court room with Mrs. Irwin, who had been sitting beside him.

Then, according to Mrs. Lambert, her husband said: "I'd like to tear your heart out piece by piece and throw it in the gutter," and struck her in the side and knocked her down."

Berkeley High Pupils to Give Two French Plays

BERKELEY, May 13.—Their ability as French scholars will be demonstrated this evening by students at Berkeley high school with the presentation of two plays written in the French language.

The entire performance will be given in French, while the students of the event were written in the same tongue to distinguished guests in the bay section, who carried out the spirit of the affair by replying in the same language. Tonight's plays, one "Gringoire," a comedy of the Louis XI period, and the other, "La Grammaire," a modern comedy, will be presented under the direction of Miss Alexine Mitchell's class in dramatic French.

Miss Mitchell, who is directing the plays, saw war service in Europe with the French Red Cross and remained to study in France after the war. Members of the high and

The Truth About Fiction Writing

Chapter VIII.

Hack Writing

A good deal of fun is poked at hack writing, but it provides the majority of writers with a means of livelihood. In other words, with their meal tickets.

It is no profession, and it is not a vocation. The majority of writers with their meal tickets are not successful.

The field covered by hack writing, the chances it affords, are tremendous. The hack writer turns out stuff for trade journals, many a reporter's salary is paid in "stories" for the hotel or other business periodicals. The pay is small, but it helps.

In the fiction field there are dozens of small magazines which pay little but afford a writer the satisfaction of getting small checks and of knowing that his stuff is acceptable somewhere. Then, in a class by themselves, are the Sunday school magazines. In doing work of this character, the hack writer may and often does find himself satisfied to stick to this one field of endeavor and make it his own. This may be no fault, but it is fair enough. And the experience is invaluable. I know that the D. C. Cook people are glad to furnish prospective writers with detailed accounts of what they want, and how they want it written.

There are all kinds of branches to hack writing, for there are dozens of publications published by various professions or interests. You have seen a concrete chicken-house, built by some boys on a ranch. You can write that up in comic-strip form, and sell it to a cement journal. You can write it up with emphasis on the chicken-house, and sell it to a poultry journal, also to farm papers. You can take the one item to several publications, provided you write it up in different form for each. This is one form of hack writing, and a profitable one.

Another field limited to this, however, it goes high, very high! A business man in Chicago wrote some books for boys in his spare time. They attained such a success that his publishers insisted on getting more. He was unable to write them. He called in two or three newspaper men and gave them the chance. They supplied the stuff under his name.

Out of several called in, two men made good with him. He showed them just how to write the stories, as he wrote his own. They fell to work. He paid each of them a hundred dollars for all rights to their manuscript, for the sake of the experience, they were glad to accept.

One of these men turned out nearly a dozen of these books. The series became highly popular. He is probably the most popular books for boys published in late years. They still sell, and more books have been added by other writers. The real hack writers got no credit for their work, but they got valuable experience. I know, for I was one of them.

Many people have commiserated me for all the money I lost by selling these books outright. Yet the experience gained was worth the "lost" money. Well worth it! Hack writing goes higher still. It can be elevated to any height you choose to go to.

A man who has been writing for thirty years, whose name is familiar to readers of magazines and books, and who has made a fortune by his work, now does only hack writing. His work appears wholly in one magazine, under many different names. Not a fifth of the money he has actually carried the business of his own magazine. He is one of the most truly artistic writers I know.

We are all hack writers, for that matter. The hack writer writes for orders, or for a certain purpose. The "writer" writes them from an inward urge—or inspiration. As a rule, he has inherited money, and can afford to do so.

We are in business for ourselves. We can't make it pay by despising hack work. The high-salaried cloth salesman may delight in displaying his imported wools and beautiful stuffs, but he probably carries cheap suspenders as a side line.

We may be too proud to fight, but we can't be too proud to write.

Uncle Wiggily Stories

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE MUD DOLLS.

By HOWARD E. GARL.

Once upon a time Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper for Uncle Wiggily, the bunny, baked some molasses cookies.

And toward the end, she had some dough left over, so Nurse Jane said, "I'll make some little molasses dolls out of this, bake them in the oven, and give them to Susan Littlefaint, and to Lulu and Alice Widdlewobble, when they come past on their way from school."

Nurse Jane rolled the molasses dough out into the shape of gingerbread dolls, with heads, arms and legs, and she baked them in a pan with the cookies.

When the cookies and molasses houses were baked good and hard, Nurse Jane took them from the oven and set them out on the back steps to cool.

"Hello!" cried Uncle Wiggily as he hopped along on his red, white and blue rheumatism crutch, "what are these funny little brown men?" For that is what the molasses dolls looked like—funny flat little brown chaps in the pan with the cookies.

"Oh those are some extra things I made in my baking," Nurse Jane said. "I'm going to give the molasses dolls to Susan Littlefaint and to Lulu and Alice Widdlewobble, when they come past on their way from school."

"So the muskrat lady put the newly baked molasses dolls on a pan by themselves and left them on the back steps to cool."

Uncle Wiggily twinkled his pink whiskers and thought of something.

"I'll play a little trick on the animal girls," said the bunny rabbit. "I'll make some little molasses dolls of brown mud, just like the molasses ones Nurse Jane has baked, and I'll put the mud dolls on the pan in place of the real ones."

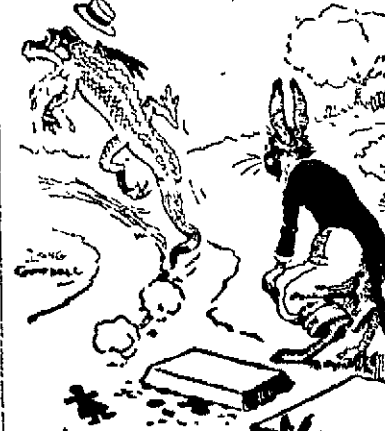

"I'll hide the molasses dolls away, when Nurse Jane comes after Susan Littlefaint, Lulu and Alice some molasses dolls, they'll be fooled when they pick up the mud ones."

"Now, I'm all ready for the joke," said Uncle Wiggily to himself. When Nurse Jane wasn't looking he slipped up the back steps and took the molasses dolls, and he didn't stop to take even a single nibble from Uncle Wiggily's ears.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the bunny gentleman. "It's a good thing I do those mud dolls. I guess. But now I won't try to fool Lulu, Alice and Susan. I'll put back the real molasses cookie dolls." So Uncle Wiggily did, and when the animal girls came home from school they were delighted with Nurse Jane's treat.

But the "gator" had to scrub his teeth three times to get the mud from his mouth. And it served him right. I think don't you and all the pussy cats doesn't know a hole through the screen door, so the mosquitoes come in to play tag with the gold fish. I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the mudkew.

"Oh, oh!" cried the gator, and he opened his mouth so wide

Spluttering and splattering away he ran that it seemed the top of his head might fly off. "Oh, ho! Here's Uncle Wiggily waiting for you!" said the bunny gentleman.

"What are you waiting for?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"For Lulu, Alice and Susan," answered the bunny. "I was going to give them the molasses dolls."

"Ho, ho!" You needn't tell me what you were going to give them. I can see the molasses dolls for myself. I'll take them home from school, and I'll give them to Lulu, Alice and Susan."

"But Lulu, Alice and Susan shall not have them."

"Why not?" asked Uncle Wiggily, and a queer look came over his pink, twinkling nose of the bunny rabbit gentleman.

"Because I'm going to eat all the molasses cookie dolls for myself," snickered the "gator," and then he went to nibble your ears, Uncle Wiggily.

"Which are you going to do first?" asked the bunny.

"I'll eat the molasses dolls!" howled the bad chap, and with that he reached up and took down the pan of mud dolls from the back steps.

"Now for the first molasses cookie doll," cried the Skittery Scallywag. He opened his mouth real wide, took a big bite and a chew and then he cried:

"Oh, mud! Oh, mud! Oh, mud! This isn't a molasses cookie doll at all. It's mud. Oh, my teeth. My tongue."

And spluttering and spluttering away he ran, his mouth full of dried mud, and he didn't stop to take even a single nibble from Uncle Wiggily's ears.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the bunny gentleman. "It's a good thing I do those mud dolls. I guess. But now I won't try to fool Lulu, Alice and Susan. I'll put back the real molasses cookie dolls." "Because I'm going to eat all the molasses cookie dolls for myself," snickered the "gator," and then he went to nibble your ears, Uncle Wiggily.

"Which are you going to do first?" asked the bunny.

"I'll eat the molasses dolls!" howled the bad chap, and with that he reached up and took down the pan of mud dolls from the back steps.

"Now for the first molasses cookie doll," cried the Skittery Scallywag. He opened his mouth real wide, took a big bite and a chew and then he cried:

"Oh, mud! Oh, mud! Oh, mud! This isn't a molasses cookie doll at all. It's mud. Oh, my teeth. My tongue."

And spluttering and spluttering away he ran, his mouth full of dried mud, and he didn't stop to take even a single nibble from Uncle Wiggily's ears.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the bunny gentleman. "It's a good thing I do those mud dolls. I guess. But now I won't try to fool Lulu, Alice and Susan. I'll put back the real molasses cookie dolls." So Uncle Wiggily did, and when the animal girls came home from school they were delighted with Nurse Jane's treat.

But the "gator" had to scrub his teeth three times to get the mud from his mouth. And it served him right. I think don't you and all the pussy cats doesn't know a hole through the screen door, so the mosquitoes come in to play tag with the gold fish. I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the mudkew.

"Oh, oh!" cried the gator, and he opened his mouth so wide that it seemed the top of his head might fly off. "Oh, ho! Here's Uncle Wiggily waiting for you!" said the bunny gentleman.

"What are you waiting for?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"For Lulu, Alice and Susan," answered the bunny. "I was going to give them the molasses dolls."

"Ho, ho!" You needn't tell me what you were going to give them. I can see the molasses dolls for myself. I'll take them home from school, and I'll give them to Lulu, Alice and Susan."

"But Lulu, Alice and Susan shall not have them."

"Why not?" asked Uncle Wiggily, and a queer look came over his pink, twinkling nose of the bunny rabbit gentleman.

"Because I'm going to eat all the molasses cookie dolls for myself," snickered the "gator," and then he went to nibble your ears, Uncle Wiggily.

"Which are you going to do first?" asked the bunny.

"I'll eat the molasses dolls!" howled the bad chap, and with that he reached up and took down the pan of mud dolls from the back steps.

"Now for the first molasses cookie doll," cried the Skittery Scallywag. He opened his mouth real wide, took a big bite and a chew and then he cried:

"Oh, mud! Oh, mud! Oh, mud! This isn't a molasses cookie doll at all. It's mud. Oh, my teeth. My tongue."

And spluttering and spluttering away he ran, his mouth full of dried mud, and he didn't stop to take even a single nibble from Uncle Wiggily's ears.

of the 210,000,000 bushels of grain necessary for the feeding of the towns and cities shall be taken from the farmers by levy; the remainder to be purchased from them by giving them in exchange machinery, cloth, iron and other articles. VIOLENCE AT ELECTIONS. FIUME, May 13.—Feeling over the recent elections here still is heated and in conflicts Tuesday night between the various elements, one person was killed and several wounded.

ROME, May 13.—Two Communists were killed and three wounded at Ascoli Piceno Tuesday when extreme Nationalists and Communists engaged in a revolver battle.

In Senor Mendoza, the author has drawn a remarkable virile character. Note the following words of Mendoza, the Spanish don who had so much to do in turning California over to the United States:

"Vast political forces are at work in this old world of ours. The theory that God appoints kings is rapidly dissipating. The sun of democracy, long mantled by the fog of tyranny, shines soon in unobscured rays. In the tomorrow of tomorrow shall the people rule, as their right divine."

"The senorita smiled into her father's eyes. Lolita Hernandez once said to me, a long time ago, when she was petulant, that my father is a rebel. I replied by calling her a minx."

"The old don made no reply, but continued: "Westward the course of empire takes its way. An English poet sings this, and well. To the east of California is a republic destined to a colossal future, because it is founded on the principle that all men are created equal, and its national life rises toward a realization of that truth. To that height

Tribune Serial, Thrilling Story of Young California

No historical novel of recent years in America has aroused interest in the west like "The Bride of Mission San Jose," which will be published serially in the Oakland Sunday TRIBUNE.

Oakland has a special interest in this book, because it is written by an Oakland man, the Rev. John Augustine Cull, and because its setting is in the immediate environment of Oakland.

In this book there is not only a delightful love story; romance of a rare order, but the contest of mighty forces for the young California province. California hung in the balance with England and the United States, each contending in snatching the territory from Mexico. How the United States got the province, almost by a thread, is revealed vividly by "The Bride of Mission San Jose."

Must rise not alone the Saxon but the Latin as well. In the characters of the book many will recognize men who moved prominently in history. Publication will start in the Oakland TRIBUNE at an early date.

How Firestone Maintains Quality At the Lowest Price Level In Tire History

New Prices Effective May 2nd, 1921

At this time, when the tire industry has revised prices to the lowest level in tire history, the car owner asks "Can quality be maintained?"

Firestone emphatically answers—YES! Not only has Firestone quality been maintained, it has been raised to the highest point in twenty years of tire building.

And here is why. Firestone is the largest exclusive tire company in the world. It is a single purpose organization, with every employee a stockholder, directing all its thoughts, labor and powers to one objective—the building of the best tire to sell at a price that gives you most miles for your money.

Two Plants—Two Products—One Fixed Idea

Firestone Tires are made in two distinct plants. Each with a separate duty to perform. Plant No. 1 builds the Firestone Cord which now sells at $46.30 for a 32x4-inch, $54.90 for a 34x4½-inch and other sizes in proportion. Tire repair men who judge value best class it as the sturdiest carcass made. Forty-seven high-grade car manufacturers use it as standard equipment. It is a quality choice among Cord Tire users.

A 30 x 3½-inch Non-Skid Tire at $13.95

Plant No. 2 concentrates exclusively on 30x 3½-inch Fabric Tires and Tubes. It is conceded to be the most efficient manufacturing unit of its kind here, without waste motion—16,000 tires and 20,000 tubes may be produced in a day. In April the output was 13,700 tires a day.

Firestone dealers help make this $13.95 price possible by accepting a smaller profit per tire on this fast-selling tire—the lowest price ever made on a standard 30x3½-inch Non Sid.

A Safe Guide to Tire Satisfaction

A safe guide to tire satisfaction today is to buy by name, bearing in mind what that name stands for. Firestone is not only the name of a tire, it is the name of a man who twenty years ago adopted the standard of "Most Miles per Dollar" for his organization, and has successfully led that organization in its fight for better tire values ever since.

POLECAT BLOCKS CAREFUL DRIVER ON SIERRA ROAD

CHICO, May 13.—For two hours a long string of automobiles was delayed on the Humboldt grade in the Sierras yesterday while a polecat playfully gambled in the center of the road.

D. J. Thornton, in the leading machine, was taking no chances, although repeatedly urged to "take a chance" by those in line in the rear.

Finally the polecat grew tired of acting as traffic halter and ran down the canyon.

Junior Rotary Club Is Educator's Plan

Conceiving an organization for boys supplementary to the Boy Scouts but tending more toward commercial training, Principal C. E. Hudspeth of Washington school, has submitted to the superintendent of schools a plan for a city-wide "Junior Rotary Club."

The plan awaits the consent and approval of the Rotary club, to which it has been referred.

Hudspeth's plan is to train youths to make business surveys, to "talk on their feet," to learn organization methods, and in general learn the ideas and ethics of good business so that the youths will ultimately be better trained for commercial work.

Parentage of Child to Be Determined

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Dr. Albert Abrams, blood test expert, was called upon by Superior Judge Graham today to determine the parentage of Eugene Sorine, 6 years old, whose mother, Mamie C. Sorine of 1536 Twenty-ninth street, filed an affidavit declaring that her former husband, John C. Sorine, was not the father of the youngster. She was given the boy's custody when a final decree of divorce was granted. Now she avers that he has no claim to the child although he has petitioned for guardianship papers. Judge Graham has decided to resort to the blood test.

Dog Travels 2000 Miles to Find His Little Mistress

MRS. C. C. HOPKIRK of Chicago, her daughter, CORINNE, and "Collie," the dog hero, who was lost en route from the east to San Francisco and trailed his mistress successfully for 2000 miles. Photographed by a TRIBUNE staff photographer aboard the China Mail Company's liner Nanking just before the vessel left for the Far East.

Collie, Lost in Omaha, Reaches San Francisco Just in Time to Catch Orient Steamship

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—This is the story of Collie, a wonder dog, whose exploit in trailing his mistress nearly 2000 miles, after being lost en route from Chicago, came to a happy end aboard the China Mail Company's liner Nanking, an hour before the vessel left on the long voyage to the Orient. The complete story will never be known because the animal cannot explain how he managed to make his way alone from Omaha to this city.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Hopkirk left their home at 5354 South Winchester street, Chicago, two weeks ago for Korea, 9000 miles away, where the Chicago physician will practice his profession for the next two years. The daughter Corinne, 5 years old, was a member of the party, as was Collie, who was born the same day as his little mistress and the two had been inseparable ever since.

Collie had been left in care of the baggage man, but got away from the train at Omaha. Every effort was made to locate him, but without success. The Hopkirks arrived here and despite the protests of the little daughter boarded the Nanking yesterday just before noon.

COLLIE ARRIVES.
In the meantime their baggage had been taken from the hotel by one of the transfer companies and remained for a few hours in storage at the Ferry building. About 11 o'clock a beautiful collie dog trotted over the apron from one of the ferry steamers and found his way to the storage room, where he refused to be driven away.

When the Hopkirk baggage was placed aboard the truck and was loaded for pier 35 the animal raced after the vehicle. The canine dodged the hands of the customs inspectors who tried to keep him away from the enclosure, raced over the gangplank, shoved brawny Sam Sackett, customs inspector to one side and in another moment had found his playmate and mistress Dr. Hopkirk said:

DAUGHTER'S FAITH.
"We believe that Collie would have a very interesting story to relate if he could only talk. The last we saw of him was when we were racing over the fields of Illinois. He left the baggage car at Omaha. He had slipped his leash, which was retained by Corinne. She even kept the stout bit of leather and affirmed her belief that Collie would come back to her. We do not understand how it happened, except that probably he was picked up by the same baggage man who lost him brought to the Oakland mole and thence to San Francisco."

"After that he must have located the baggage by his sense of smell and followed it to the Nanking. However, it proves that the faith of my little daughter was not exerted in vain."

Woman Is Taken in Bootlegger Raid

SAN JOSE, May 13.—John Roffice and F. Woods were arrested in this county yesterday by federal prohibition officers acting in conjunction with deputy sheriffs under Sheriff George Lyle, charged with the violation of the Volstead law. Late last evening they were released on $500 cash bail each, placed with Justice C. L. Witten to assure their presence in the federal court in San Francisco next Tuesday. Roffice is alleged to have been operating his San Felipe hotel, in the southern part of the county, as a "blind pig."

Driver Exonerated of Blame for Boy's Death

BERKELEY, May 13.—Fred Terr, Oakland truck driver, was exonerated of all blame by a coroner's jury last night for the death of Kenneth Carpenter, 5 years old, 430 Fifth street, Oakland, who was struck by the former's automobile at Fifth and Jefferson streets, last Friday.

The jury's verdict found the death was due to embolism, caused by a fatty tissue getting into a blood channel and striking the heart.

VALLEJO BANKER DENIES CHARGES MADE BY WIFE

Joseph Wilson Defends Name of Woman Accused As Co-respondent.

FAIRFIELD, May 13.—The court has taken the case of Mary L. Wilson vs. Joseph Wilson of Vallejo under advisement pending the presentation of certain deeds and other evidence.

The day was taken almost exclusively in testimony relative to the community and separate property of the husband, L. G. Harrier, counsel for Mrs. Wilson, stating in his argument that the community property was of the value of $30,000 and the separate property $53,000. Wilson testified that the community property was of the value of $35,000 and the separate property $12,000.

Wilson on the stand denied all his wife's charges of improper conduct with Mrs. Lawton.

In his argument, Dixon L. Phillips made an emotional arraignment of Mrs. Lawton, blaming her for breaking up the home of the Wilson family.

In his testimony Wilson stated that his home was not of the most pleasant and many times after a long day's work he would sleep on the floor of his office, or go to a hotel.

Mrs. Wilson is asking for all of the community and for the money in the amount of $300 per month for her support and the support of the two children.

DAHLIA GARDEN WINS ATTENTION

BERKELEY, May 13.—Interest in the establishment of trial dahlia gardens at the University of California with the co-operation of the division of landscape engineering and floriculture is causing widespread action on the part of flower lovers, according to Professor J. W. Gregg of the division of landscape engineering. Important developments in the raising of this particular bloom are expected to result from the trial gardens.

The gardens are to be established at the request of the California Dahlia Society.

The society has published the California Dahlia Society concerning the entering of tubers provide that dahlias can be entered only by the producer or introducer, they shall be catalogued, not more than two plants of any one variety may be entered, and the exhibitor must properly plant and take care of during the season, with the name of variety and exhibitor posted on the stake.

Divorce Suit Renewed Is Opposed by Wife

Answering her husband's charges that she had been living at 2099 Bangle avenue, Alameda, with Lieutenant Amos Cardwell by declaring that the husband, Louis E. Radouin, wealthy restaurant proprietor of San Francisco, had frequently broke into her bathroom and carried her about their house when the blinds were up, Mrs. Mary E. Radouin today fought the renewal of the case against Superior Judge J. C. Quinn.

Judge Quinn, after scrutinizing the affidavits submitted by Radouin, reopened the case. It will be heard next Friday. Mrs. Radouin applied for divorce some time ago in a suit that dragged through the months of January and February. The case was then dropped from the calendar without a decision.

DOG DIGS FROM POUND TO PLAY WITH CHILDREN

ALAMEDA, May 13.—Grant Hicks, city poundmaster, has a prisoner on his hands that he can't seem to hold. It is a large handsome dog that has taken a fancy to the kiddies that sport on the municipal beach at Washington Park. Complaint was made to Hicks and he rounded Towser in and took him to the pound.

Twenty minutes later the telephone rang and Miss Vera McLaughlin, in charge of the park, was on the line.

"That dog's back on the beach," came over the wire.

Hicks hurried over to the pound and the mystery was revealed. The pound is located on the eastern side of the city, just way to freedom, swim fifty yards, and hurried to his playmates on the beach.

CHURCH ARRANGES PENTECOST FEAST

Celebration of the festival of the Pentecost, one of the most significant events of the Portuguese calendar, owing to a tradition handed down from the Azores to the effect that it was on this day that the relief came to the starving population of the islands, will begin tomorrow evening. The event is usually celebrated with fireworks and special illuminations on Saturday evening and with elaborate church services and feasts on the Sunday following.

Members of the Portuguese sodality will celebrate the festival at Our Lady Help of Christians church, East Ninth street and Twenty-third avenue tomorrow evening. The church is decorated with flowers and the altar is draped with red. The feast will be served here to twelve needy aged men and women in honor of the Holy Spirit.

In the afternoon an auction will be held to entertain the crowd, and to help defray the expenses of the festival.

Police Taking of Dry Case Fees Questioned

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—The efforts of Chief of Police Daniel O'Connell to obtain additional patrolmen for the local department, have led members of the finance committee of the board of supervisors to prepare figures to be presented at Monday's meeting showing that many officers are engaged in prohibition enforcement work.

Supervisor James Power, it is said, has obtained from the records of the United States marshal's office evidence showing that officers from patrolmen to captains have been accepting witness fees of $150 and $300 for appearing in liquor cases. This is said to be in violation of the charter, which prohibits the police from obtaining money other than their salaries.

The report to be submitted by Power will, it is said, contain the names of two police captains active against the bootleggers. It will be the contention of the supervisors that if the enforcement of the prohibition laws were left to the federal authorities the police force would be sufficient to take care of the city at large. The defense of the officers inclining to cash in on the prohibition show accepted witness fees, will be, it is understood, that they used the money for expenses in buying drinks in an effort to stamp out the illicit liquor traffic.

Girl's Death Laid to Inexperienced Driver

BERKELEY, May 13.—That the inexperience of Mrs. Daisy May Huber, wife of W. L. Huber, who was killed by an automobile driven by her father, was responsible for the death of Miss Anna O. Nilson, 35 years old, 2879 Pacific avenue, San Francisco, was laid last night in the office of Deputy Coroner Frank Berg.

The jury's verdict was in part as follows: "That the death of Anna Nilson was caused by the crushing of the vital organs of the chest sustained in an accident in which she was struck and instantly killed by an automobile driven by Daisy M. Huber on the lawn in front of 1548 Euclid avenue. In our opinion the accident was due to Daisy M. Huber being an inexperienced driver and that she failed to properly control her automobile in an emergency."

Mrs. Huber is booked at Berkeley police station on a charge of manslaughter and was released on her own recognizance. Whether or not she will be prosecuted for the death of Miss Nilson is being determined by the police and relatives of Miss Nilson.

SANTA ROSA, May 13.—Within 100 yards of the Windsor district school the largest still ever uncovered in Sonoma county was seized late Thursday by federal prohibition agents and J. C. Hastings, in whose barn it was located, was placed under arrest on a charge of selling 100 gallons capacity, 500 gallons of mash and 11 gallons of prune brandy were found and seized also.

School children gave the officers the whereabouts of the still, the usual odor from the Hastings ranch.

CITY PLANNERS OF ALAMEDA TO BE REORGANIZED

Commission Votes Resolution Asking Action by Council.

ALAMEDA, May 13.—The Alameda City Planning Commission is to be reorganized so that it will be a regular recognized agency of the city.

At the present time the city planning commission is appointed by City Manager Charles E. Hewes. The council has nothing to do with the body and neither has the commission the right to do more than suggest improvements.

The commission also placed the decision in the matter of the extension of Alameda avenue through to Farnside boulevard over until the next meeting, May 26, at which time representatives of the city government, the Chamber of Commerce and citizens can be present to discuss the extension of the street.

When the fire department arrived on the scene the Alameda apartment, which is above the store, was endangered by the fire. The loss has not been estimated.

THIEVES RANSACK PI KAPPA HOUSE

BURKELEY, May 13.—Ransacking the Pi Kappa house, 2614 Dwight way, thieves made their escape last night with money, jewelry and clothing of the students valued at almost $500.

Two suitcases were taken in which to carry away the loot. The thieves made a complete search of the house in which the contents of closets and drawers were scattered about the rooms. The thieves took property belonging to Harry Gibeau, Evan Bramlage and Joseph S. Hook, three members of the fraternity. The theft occurred between 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and 7 o'clock last night during the absence of occupants of the house.

CLAY NOT IN TIJUANA

SAN DIEGO, May 13.—Dr. L. Davis Clay, 52 years old, Denver, Colo., is not under arrest in Tijuana, Lower California, according to department of justice officials who went to the Mexican town today. Friends of Clay, it was reported yesterday, had appealed to Governor Shaw of Colorado and the latter had wired to Senator Phillips in Washington asking that appeal be made to the state department to effect the release of Clay. Tijuana officials declared Dr. Clay is not known there.

PROSECUTION OF SHERIFFS WAITS ON GIRL'S WORD

Alameda Teacher Expected to Indicate Action in Near Future.

SAN JOSE, May 13.—Miss Margaret Huer, Alameda school teacher, who shot herself following an alleged assault upon her by Alexander Sheriffs, is expected to indicate today whether or not she will prosecute Sheriffs in the San Francisco courts.

Sheriffs resigned as city superintendent of schools here last Tuesday shortly after the girl's accusation became public.

The question of Sheriffs' fate was put squarely in Miss Huer's hands late last evening when Police Detective William Sproll and Police-yman Katherine O'Connor visited her at the Columbia hospital, hearing her story and offering her every possible cooperation should she decide to prosecute the case in the San Francisco courts.

Will $1000.00

Here's a Picture Puzzle that contains a number of objects and articles beginning with the letter "S." Fifteen cash prizes will be given away during our Big Advertising and Booster Campaign, for the fifteen best answers to this Puzzle. It costs nothing to take part. This Puzzle Game is a campaign to increase the popularity of our famous "Minnesota" Fountain Pen.

The solution of this fascinating Picture puzzle depends only on your ability to find the correct or nearest correct list of names of visible objects and articles shown in the Picture, that begin with the letter "S." It's a test of your skill in picking out "S-words." It's a Jim Dandy Puzzle game. We know you will enjoy it. All can participate in this great fun game, from the inest child to a Ma—even Grandpa and Grandma. Sit right down and get the rest of the folks to help you and send in your answer at once. We'll venture to say you'll never have more fun.

If your answer is awarded first prize by the Judges you will win $200; but if you would like to win more than $200, we are going to make the following special offer during this Big Advertising Campaign, whereby you can win bigger cash prizes by sending in an order for one of our famous "Minnesota" Pens.

Here's How. If the judges award your answer first prize, and you have ordered one of our "Minnesota" Fountain pens at $3.00, you will win $300 instead of $200; 2d prize $150; 3d prize $75, etc. (See 2d Column in Prize List.)

Or, if your answer wins First Prize and you have sent in an order for one of our $5.00 "Minnesota" Pens, you will win $1000 instead of $500; 2d prize $500; 3d prize $250, etc. (See 3rd Column in Prize List.)

It's just a dandy offer! Extra amounts will be given on all prizes in the same manner.

MINNESOTA "THE EASY WRITING FOUNTAIN PEN"

We believe that a better pen cannot be had at any price, and are backing our judgment by putting out this big Booster Campaign. The patented automatic, locking device, on the self filler, is a special feature that you will appreciate. The quality and workmanship throughout the entire pen is the very best. Pens are tipped with hard iridium and guaranteed free from defects. It is a common sense pen at a very reasonable price.

Our $5.00 Minnesota represents the utmost value in fountain pens. We know you will like this pen better than any one you ever used. Our pens come in two styles, gentlemen's and lady's, the same high quality with 18 carat gold filled trimmings.

Our $3.00 Minnesota is an excellent value at a popular price. For those who want a good serviceable pen at a reasonable price, our $2.00 pen is just what they need. It does not have the gold mountings of our $5.00 pen, and the barrel and point is a little smaller. It is also made in two sizes, ladies' and gentlemen's. In ordering be sure to state style wanted.

AGED MAN KILLED WHEN HE PICKS UP LIVE POWER WIRE

Picks Up Loose End Despite Warning of Friends While Cutting Tree.

SANTA ROSA, May 13.—Charles Fitcher, 82 years old, a retired sea captain, was instantly killed at Camp Meeker late yesterday when he picked up a high tension power line which had been severed by a falling tree. Captain Fitcher was cutting trees with a party of workmen near the camp when a tree he was chopping fell in the wrong direction, breaking the line and tearing it from the poles.

Disregarding the warning of the other workmen, Fitcher picked up one end. His body instantly became a mass of flames and he was hurled thirty feet. E. A. Hoover, another workman, rushed up and tore Fitcher's hands from the wire.

The inquest was held last night, the verdict being death by electrocution. Captain Fitcher was a character about Camp Meeker and made his living by telling sea stories to tourists and campers.

OAKLAND'S RED CROSS LAUDED BY LEGIONAIRES

Letters of appreciation and confidence in the work of the Oakland Chapter of the American Red Cross have been received from Oakland Post No. 5 and the Alameda county committee of the American Legion. The letters, which were read at the executive committee meeting of the Red Cross in the city hall yesterday, assure the chapter of the continued co-operation of the Legion in the work of the Red Cross.

The letters state that the organization is not ungrateful of the splendid services being rendered by the Red Cross.

A chance for every person in Oakland who does not know how to swim to have the advantage of a week of lessons in any of the local pools and without charge, will be offered by the Red Cross from May 23 to 28. Plans for the "Learn to Swim" week were discussed at the committee meeting. With the announcement registration cards may be secured at the committee headquarters.

The Red Cross will teach you how to go swimming and come back.

The recreation department, headed by J. R. Nash, and the Boy Scouts, have also reported to be co-operating in making "Learn-to-Swim Week" a possibility.

Public Picnicking Grounds to Open

Camp Cladwell will be formally opened for the season Saturday evening by a party of the Contra Costa Hills Club, which will spend most of the week-end in putting this public recreation ground in order.
Volunteer workers will clear trails, gather firewood and do other "assessment work" on their pleasure placer claim in the foothills.

This announcement comes from Harold French, president of the Contra Costa Hills Club, with an invitation to all who have enjoyed the delights of this free-for-all country club in Oakland's redwood forest to show their appreciation of the privilege extended to them by spending a few hours in necessary improvement work.

One party will leave the end of the Park Boulevard car line at 3 p.
m. Saturday, and another section will start from the same place at 9 o'clock on Sunday morning. This retreat is the only place in the east bay hills where the public is permitted to camp and make fires. The club is planning to open other camping and picnicking grounds in other satisfactory and suitable spots, with owners' permission.

WHITE HOUSE GROCERTERIA

9th bet Broadway & Washington
East Fourteenth and Thirty-Fifth Avenue.

Reports circulated to the effect that the White House Grocerteria Company, operating the first of a chain of grocerterias at 470 Ninth street, was controlled and financed by Oriental interests have been carefully traced and it has been determined that these reports were circulated by competing concerns who were evidently determined to make the progress of this new firm in Oakland as difficult as possible.

With a view to establishing the ownership and management of the White House Grocerteria Company the following letter was secured from the owners of the property to put at rest the unscrupulous reports circulated:

Mr. W. B. Benchley, White House Grocerteria, 470 Ninth Street, Oakland, Calif.
Dear Sir:

You have called my attention to the fact that certain statements have been made to the effect that the White House Grocerteria was in some way connected with the meat market on Ninth street adjoining your place, conducted by Chinese, and have asked me to make a statement for publication as to the facts concerning this matter, so far as they are within my knowledge.

I desire to say that in February last you came to me and opened negotiations for renting the store which you now occupy. You spoke to me about the business which you intended to carry on there and mentioned the names of your associates. At no time during these negotiations was any mention made either directly or indirectly, of the fact that there was any connection with Chinese.

At that time the store now occupied by the Chinese market was vacant and there were no negotiations of any kind pending, either by the present Chinese tenants nor any other Chinese, and the arrangements for the renting of your store had been entirely closed before the present Chinese tenants took up the matter with me of renting the store which they now have.

I remember distinctly that before considering seriously the renting of this store to the Chinese, I consulted you and you asked for a little time to think it over, and afterwards came to me and said that while you should much prefer my renting the place to some other person than a Chinese, you did not feel that you had any right to present any serious objections, and I therefore rented the place.

From what I consider to be a full knowledge of the facts in the case, I have no hesitation whatever in saying that I am absolutely sure there is no connection of any kind between your store and the adjoining one.

I do not know that an affidavit from me would add force to this statement, but if it will I shall be glad to embody the facts above stated in an affidavit.

Yours very truly,
ARTHUR P. HOLLAND,
Vice-President Alameda Title Insurance Co.

These malicious reports are not only an injustice to one of Oakland's newest enterprises, but also to the public, as many Oakland people have not taken advantage of the low prices at which this firm is selling groceries.

TWENTY FIVE HUNDRED CHILDREN IN SCHOOL TRACK MEET

SEATTLE ATHLETES MAKE MERRY AT EXPENSE OF J. CAL EWING'S OAKLAND PITCHING STAFF

LAKEVIEW TAKES HONORS IN BIG MEET AT CALIFORNIA FIELD

Six Thousand Kiddies Root and Cheer As Playmates Gallop Around Historic Track

By DOUG MONTELL

One of the most spectacular athletic gatherings ever witnessed in these parts was staged yesterday afternoon and evening on California oval when the Oakland Recreation Department held the annual playground senior athletic meet. More than six thousand school children of Oakland were massed in the bleachers to watch close to twenty-five hundred of their playmates perform in one of the largest field days ever attempted. No sight was ever so worth while watching as the display yesterday, no more action could be obtained elsewhere, for it was like a ten-ring circus with the entire field alive with the thousands of athletes, large and small, at their various and sundry events.

In fact it was too large, for the program contained forty different events of the various weights contesting. This not to mention the fact that tens, semi-tens and finals had to be run in all of these. Nine heats were scheduled for the short dash events and with such an unwieldy schedule things were badly summed up before the day was well under way. Had it not been for the presence of Walter Christie, ever willing to help, the chances are that the 60-pound youngsters would still be standing around waiting to run the final heat of their 40-yard dash.

Not only were the officials unable to organize the super abundance of athletes properly but they met with little or no co-operation at the hands of those who should have had charge of the youngsters in the stands. We say in the stands for the six thousand or there were in that location when the parade started. When the first event started they were all over the track and remained there from then on to hold up proceedings. The meet started at 1:30 and was concluded at 7:45.

However, the main thing was that from the point of view of athletic achievement it was the greatest thing ever put over.

Brick Muller's Father Is Lakeview Principal.

Lakeview School, made famous by the presence there of Mr. Muller, the father of the one and only "Brick" Muller, topped the honors for the day in the elementary school meet by acquiring 45 points or 14 more than their nearest rival, Washington school. Mr. Muller had a flock of future athletic stars in his group and the boys made an excellent showing in nearly every case. Washington school barely noted out intermediate second place by a lone point, Washington taking 32 1-5 and intermediate 30 1-5. Lakeview took fourth 27 1-5 and Lincoln fifth with 25. There was the closest battle of the day, the narrow margin of 1-20 of a point. From here down the other schools strung out, twenty-one of the twenty-nine schools that entered scoring points.

In the Junior High section of the meet, Alexander Hamilton was an easy winner with 54 1-2 points, more than twice as much as the nearest competing school, which was Lockwood Junior High with 27. Only

LASSIES LEAD ROOTERS

Six thousand youngsters at in the bleachers at California Field, Berkeley, yesterday afternoon and cheered for their favorite athletes. The picture shows two of the tiny yell leaders calling for a lot of "rahs" as their school relay team takes the lead.

Seals Look Bad Against Salt Lake Pitcher

Sam Agnew Has a Terrible Time Behind the Log for S. F.

The San Francisco Seals played the poorest fielding game of the season yesterday afternoon when the Salt Lake Bees defeated them 9 to 0 at the Oakland ball park. Seven errors were charged against them and all of them were made at a critical point. Sam Agnew was charged with three errors and each one of them let a runner cross the plate. His wild throw to third after which he tripled allowed Wilhoit to score the first run in the opening frame. His other two blunders were on perfect throws to the plate that he fumbled and let runners score.

Herbie McQuaid pitched the first five innings against the Bees, and is responsible for only two of the six runs made off Boos by "Doc" Walsh and Maury Rath opened the way for the second Seal tally in the fourth while Rath, Caveney and Agnew all kicked through with errors when the Bees got four in the fifth. Randolph pitched the sixth and seventh frames for the Seals and he was touched for two runs. He would have not by without a score had Sam Agnew held Schick's throw to the plate. The other run was earned off Crumpler in the eighth.

Harry Blasholder, a tall kid who was grabbed from the Southern California sandlots, was on the hill for the Bees and let the Seals down with four hits, one of them to the in-field.

Awful Carnage When Rainiers Defeat Oakland

Pitchers Battered Hither and Yon and Even Further.

SEATTLE, May 13.—The gent who chirped that the Oakland ball club looked very good except for its pitching staff, spoke a mouth full! The boys from California have played three games here and lost 'em all to the Seattle Rainiers. Six of their seven pitchers have been put on display and they all looked alike to the Rainiers. The two wins which were made off him, and six of them were put over in the double-header here yesterday were just as easy as the day before. The first game ended with a 3 to 1 score, and Big Russell (Buz) Arlett was the Oakland pitcher to take a fine bumping. Twelve hits were made off him, and six of them were bunched in the fourth inning, when the Rainiers scored four runs and tied up the game, as Arlett's teammates couldn't do more than to get five hits off the pitching of Bill Geary.

That fourth inning attack by the home team was more than enough to cause any manager to move his pitcher, but Arlett wanted to stay out there and finish the game. No more after that frame, but the damage had already been done.

The second game was a slugfest match for both teams and the result was in doubt until the eighth inning, when the locals stepped out and grabbed eight runs. The score was against them 3 to 8 at the time. Ray Kremer and Harry Krause had been pitched from the box in the earlier innings, so Lane Shultz, a young pitcher from the Oakland sandlots, was on the hill when the Rainiers went out for the big inning. Kenworthy started with a double, and when Cunningham singled and Spencer tripled, Winn was called to relieve the young Oak and he did even worse. Bill Stumpf greeted Winn by hitting a homer into the left field bleachers. Eleven batters faced the two Oakland pitchers in this inning and eight hits were made. Bill Kenworthy was at the plate twice and hit a double each time.

Jack Knight did his best in trying to help the Oaks win the second game. He got three hits in four chances. The Oaks did some slugging themselves and got a double, getting fourteen hits.

Freak Bets Made On Heavyweight Battle

NEW YORK, May 13.—Jack Dempsey, a 3 to 5 favorite over Georges Carpentier in the coming battle at Jersey City July 2, is quoted in Wall street today. Carpentier money is scarce as yet but some few wagers of size have been placed. Mordant & Company, brokers, announced a bet of $2500 against $4500 that Carpentier will last twelve rounds.

SCHAEFFER LEADING.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—The score stood 1800 to 1942 last night in the billiard match between Edouard Schaeffer, Belgian champion, and Jack Schaeffer of San Francisco with Schaeffer leading.

ENGINEERS READY TO ASSIST ALASKA

cisco bay local of the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association, announced today from New York that he has been for some time assisting in the direction of the marine strikers that the marine engineers are willing to go to the relief of Alaska where vessel stoppage has limited the fuel supply.

The Association, Pegg said, is willing to loan ships to carry food to Alaska without charge for service if the shipowners and the Shipping Board will furnish bottoms.

The offer is made contingent upon the establishment of the truth of reports regarding the critical Alaska condition.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, May 13.—Improvement in the cotton market had much to do with the drop in points in the cotton market today. Temperatures in the southwest were higher. The south and Japanese merchants were leading sellers of a crop options while New Orleans bought and Wall street traded buoyantly. At the end of the first twenty minutes of the market was unsettled and 7 to 8 points net lower.

$2,108,787 IN CITY TREASURY, SAYS AUDITOR

City Council Receives Application of Legion Post for Memorial Day Aid.

The city council this morning received an application from the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and United Spanish War Veterans for an appropriation of $100 for a joint memorial service May 30. The matter was referred to the finance department.

The auditor reported that the Oakland city treasury has $2,108,787.32 total cash.

The council set as a canvassing board on the results of the recent election. The canvass must be completed by tomorrow, under the law.

Date of School Closing Awaits Auditor Reports

The entire school department of Oakland is now concerned with the question of when the schools shall close, and the latest tentative date is June 3, according to the superintendent's bulletin, issued yesterday afternoon.

As soon as the city and county auditors tell the state of the school funds, the date will be positively set. It is known, however, that school must close earlier than usual this year because of the expenditures made from the budget for teachers' salaries, and for other purposes.

The bulletin says: "Up to the time the superintendent's bulletin goes to press (Wednesday evening) we have not received any information from the offices of the county or city auditors by which we can definitely fix the date of the closing of schools. On account of the failure of the City Council last September to provide the funds for school support, as requested, there is every indication that there will not be sufficient funds available to continue schools in session after June 3. We are assured that we will receive within the next few days, definite statements from the city and county auditors as to the exact amount of cash available for the rest of the year."

As for the coming year, the educators have started working on their budget and now face the task of pruning expenditures to a minimum in the face of a large influx of new students to be taken care of.

"It's a problem," says Business Manager Lloyd Varze. "We will have 4000 more children to take care of and yet the taxpayer does not want taxes raised. To it the growing school population to the lessening tax paying desire is somewhat of a job."

OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED BY GRAND LODGES

Work of I. O. O. F. and the Rebekah Sessions to End With Auditorium Ball.

Installation of new officers of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and of the Rebekah Assembly, who were elected yesterday, marked the closing business session of the state convention today at the auditorium. Tonight the convention will come to a close with the social affair of the season, a grand ball to be tendered by the local lodges of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

The complete list of the fellow officers formally inducted into office today follows:

A. D. Ketterlin, grand master; James Ryan Jr., deputy grand master; E. R. Longley, grand warden; H. D. Richardson, grand secretary; J. W. Harris, grand treasurer; R. D. Naylor, grand chaplain; M. H. Alfred, grand marshal; C. R. May, grand conductor; A. C. Ar-buckle, grand guardian; M. E. Forbes, grand herald; John Glasson, Joseph Foster and E. H. Black, grand trustees; S. E. Moreland, John Huetzel, A. N. Bullock, D. A. Sinclair and P. E. Pierce, trustees of Odd Fellows' Home.

REBEKAH OFFICERS.

The complete list of Rebekah Assembly officers installed at the ceremonies this morning follow:

Mrs. Mary M. Pierce, vice-president; Mrs. Adelle C. Byrn, warden; Mrs. Mollie M. Cyrus, secretary; Mrs. Lois M. Wyckoff, treasurer; May Reynolds, marshal; Albina C. Anderson, conductor; Mamie E. Whitmore, chaplain; Marie C. Steinhmann, inside guardian; Katherine Jackson, Pannie Lacey, Ethel P. Foster, Alta M. Orr and Laura M. Lawrie, trustees of Orphans' Home.

Private affairs of the lodge concerning its rights and the laws affecting its various officers and auxiliary lodges occupied the remainder of the last business session today.

At 8:15 o'clock tonight the newly elected grand officers will lead the grand march at the ball in the Auditorium, which will probably be attended by several thousand local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs as hosts to the 1500 delegates attending the convention. A large orchestra will furnish the music and elaborate preparations for the affair have been made by committees of the local order.

YESTERDAY'S BUSINESS.

Robert S. Grant, chairman of the ball committee of the convention organization will be floor manager and Tillie S. Priestley assistant floor manager.

Yesterday afternoon the Odd Fellows went to the ball game at the Oakland ball park while the Rebekah Assembly's Past Presidents' Association held its annual meeting and election of officers at the Hotel Oakland. Later the Veteran Rebekahs' Association held its annual meeting and banquet at the Key Route Inn.

In the evening the delegates attended the contest between the Santa Rosa and the Bakersfield lodge degree teams in emulation of the first degree Odd Fellowship.

Youthful Burglars Raid High School

BERKELEY, May 13.—Youthful burglars are being sought today for gaining entrance to the secretary's and principal's offices at the high school last night and escaping with money and stamps. One dollar in stamps and small change was taken from the secretary's office and between $5 and $8 in stamps from the office of Principal C. L. Biedenbach.

Extension of Street Injures Ground, Claim

Leon Gray, assistant city attorney, is preparing to journey to Martinez Tuesday to defend the city of Oakland in a $4500 damage suit brought by Fred E. Reed, the Rock Ridge Place Tract and other realty concerns as a result of the cutting of a right of way through the hills of North Oakland for the present extension of Broadway.

According to Gray, Reed and the others were among the first to sue for the extension of Broadway, but when the job was done they promptly filed suit for damages. Reed and other assert that they favored the extending of Broadway, but did not expect the act to result as it has. They allege that the cut through the hills left their property "thirty-two feet" in the air and therefore less salable. They assert that they expected a hilly street, but not a deep cut. A resident would be inconvenienced in reaching the thoroughfare.

The case was brought to the Contra Costa county courts and will be argued there.

POLICE FAIL IN HUNT FOR BANDIT

The police are scouring the city today for the bandit who at noon yesterday, within plain view of hundreds of pedestrians and two traffic officers, held up the jewelry store of Davidson & Licht, 1304 Broadway, in the heart of Oakland's business district, and escaped with $200 in currency and three watches valued at $150.

The robber escaped after he had taken $180 from B. F. Velasco, a clerk, and $20 in change from Ben Davidson, a member of the firm. The bandit refused to take personal effects of his victims, but forced Velasco to place a tray of expensive gold watches near him. He took three, each valued at $50.

As a customer left the establishment, the bandit, poorly dressed, entered and advanced to the counter where Davidson and Velasco were standing. After asking the cost of repairing a ring the bandit produced

CANDIES GIVEN CLEAN BILL BY HEALTH OFFICER

Sweets Being Sold Near Public Schools Declared to Be Safe.

A formal report to the effect that the candies sold near public schools are not injurious or dangerous was tendered to Commissioner Morse today by Health Officer Kirby Smith and will be sent by Morse to the Board of Education, where the discussion started.

Dr. Smith says he has arranged for a thorough discussion of the food values of candies at the Y. W. C. A. on June 7 by Professor E. J. Lee of the University of California, who analyzed the samples of alleged impure candies selected recently by the health officer from stores near schools. Dr. Smith's report follows: "Recently there has been considerable agitation in the press in regard to coloring matter and so-called injurious candies which have been sold in the vicinity of the public schools. This matter has been thrashed out by the pure food department of the State Board of Health and I am pleased to inform you there has not been found any candies on sale that could be classed as injurious or dangerous for human consumption."

"Realizing that the best method to pursue is that of education, I have been successful in securing Professor E. J. Lee, director of the pure food and drugs of the State of California, to address the public, which will be done through the medium of the Mothers' Club, through the courtesy of Mrs. E. J. Kramer, at the Y. W. C. A. on June 7, at 5 p. m., to which the public in general are invited. This notice will be sent out by Mrs. Kramer and I am sure that it will be of general public interest."

An automatic revolver and commanded the two to put up their hands. After he had taken what he wanted the bandit escaped in the noonday throng, while Davidson ran for a policeman standing at Thirteenth and Broadway. Captain of Inspectors James T. Drew, returning to the city hall from lunch looked in the store as he passed, but failed to see the revolver and thought the bandit was a customer.
